UNIVERSITY MISSION AND GOAL

The University of Southern Mississippi, located in the south central part of the state, is operated by the State of Mississippi as one of eight public universities. The University identifies its primary service area as the southern half of the state, although as a university, it is committed to serve the entire state with programs and services not available from other public educational institutions, with programs and services in which the University has specialized expertise, and with programs and services where the University is uniquely organized to fulfill existing needs. The University also believes that it should serve residents of other states and areas as far as possible within the limits of the law, financial resources, and physical facilities, and the University accepts the principle that a student body with divergent backgrounds is often desirable in creating an educational environment. In this belief and acceptance, the University sees itself as a regional institution.

However, while the University feels that it is accountable to all of its clientele for the highest quality possible in its programs and services, it acknowledges that by virtue of its being a state institution, it ultimately is responsible to the citizens of the State of Mississippi, their duly elected representatives, and their appointed representatives of legally constituted agencies.

The Purposes of the University

The University of Southern Mississippi is an emerging, comprehensive institution committed to seek and reward distinction among its programs, faculty, students, and services. Its purposes are to provide high-quality teaching, research, and service for the benefit of the people of Mississippi, the Gulf South, and the nation. In the direction for excellence set forth by the Board of Trustees of State Institutions of Higher Learning, in the stated commitment of its administration to aim at distinction, and in the energetic atmosphere created by faculty, students, and alumni, the University has an affirmative context as well as a capacity for its movement toward greater recognition of its programs and services.

The transmission of knowledge—instruction in its broadest sense—continues to be the University's central concern. As a comprehensive term, the transmission of knowledge incorporates the University's fundamental commitment to excellence in teaching and instructional activities which provide all students, at any stage of their lives and careers, with a wide array of opportunities for both a liberal education and specialized professional preparation. At the same time, the University transmits knowledge in all of its functions: by presentation, publication, and application of its research; by its far-reaching service programs; and by the sustained enrichment of the University community through broad experiences in the creative arts. As it aims toward recognition and distinction, the University seeks coherence and interdependence among teaching, research, and service, as it likewise seeks coherence and a continuum among undergraduate, graduate, and lifelong learning.

The University is in the same manner committed to the expansion and preservation of knowledge. Research is defined in the broadest possible terms, both in language appropriate to various disciplines and to its nature as an adventure in human thought. The University is expected to be a center for creativity and the development of new knowledge. The University aims, too, to preserve what is known by means of its libraries, museums, galleries, collections, and archives.

In the expansion and preservation of knowledge, as well as in its transmission, the University means to serve the large community to which it is responsible. It will continue to provide various learning opportunities through its programs of extension and continuing education, and it commits the full range of its intellectual resources to meet the changing needs of the society which it serves.

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT OF 1974

(Buckley Amendment)

The Buckley Amendment deals with one subject only: educational records. The purpose of the law is to define, more precisely than ever has been done, who may or may not see them. On the one hand, the law grants students guaranteed access; on the other hand, it takes from the universities the privilege of indiscriminate disclosure.

The Buckley Amendment sets forth these main requirements:

- (1) it allows a student access to each educational record that a university or college keeps on him or her;
- it requires the institution to establish a policy on how students can go about seeing specific records;
- (3) it requires the institution to inform all students as to what rights they have under the Amendment, how they can act on these rights according to school policy, and how they can see a copy of the policy; and
- (4) it requires the institution to seek student permission, in writing, before disclosing any personally identifiable record to individuals other than professional personnel employed in the university or college (and others who meet certain specified requirements).

The University has developed and put into writing a policy for handling requests from students and for disclosing personally identifiable information about students. Students are notified once a year of their rights under the law by publishing the University policy in the student handbook.

RETENTION OF STUDENTS AND PROGRAM COMPLETION INFORMATION

The Office of Graduate Admissions will provide, upon request, information regarding student retention as well as the number and percentage of students completing specific graduate programs at The University of Southern Mississippi. For further information, please contact:

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

The Graduate School at The University of Southern Mississippi was established in 1947 to recognize the University's growing responsibilities as a center of higher learning and provide an academic environment in which advanced research and free inquiry could develop to the advantage of both the student and the State. In the years since 1947, the University's graduate programs have developed logically on the growing points of strong undergraduate schools and departments to meet the needs for professional competence beyond the academic measure of the baccalaureate degree.

In response to the need to offer graduate programs beyond the boundaries of the Hattiesburg Campus, the Board of Trustees of Institutions of Higher Learning in 1972 authorized the University to grant graduate degrees on the campus at The University of Southern Mississippi, Gulf Park. Course work taken at the Hattiesburg and Gulf Park campuses is considered as campus work.

The Graduate School's Place Within the University Structure

The Graduate School is administered by a dean executing policies determined by the Graduate Council. The present composition of the Graduate Council includes the Dean of the Graduate School and elected members from the College of The Arts, the College of Business Administration, the College of Education and Psychology, the College of Health and Human Sciences, the College of Liberal Arts, and the College of Science and Technology. Permanent ex officio members are the President of the University and the University Librarian. The Council elects a chair from its regular members. The University Registrar serves as secretary to the Council. The Dean of the Graduate School serves as corresponding secretary.

The responsibilities of the Graduate Council, representing both administration and faculty, include:

1. Determining policies of admission to the Graduate School.

- Considering and approving graduate programs submitted to the Council through curriculum committees of each college.
- 3. Electing members of the Graduate Faculty upon recommendation by the academic deans.
- 4. Approving new courses (and deleting courses) for graduate credit.

5. Acting upon any other problems affecting graduate programs.

The graduate programs approved by the Council are carried out through the Graduate Faculty in each degree-granting college of the University's academic organization.

DEGREE PROGRAMS OFFERED*

UNIVERSITY PRESS OF MISSISSIPPI

The University Press of Mississippi was founded in 1970 to encourage the dissemination of the fruits of research and study through the publication of scholarly works. Functioning as the scholarly publishing arm of the state-supported universities in Mississippi, the University Press is governed by a Board of Directors made up of one representative from each of the eight universities, one representative from the Board of Trustees of State Institutions of Higher Learning, and the Director of the Press.

The University Press publishes between ten and twenty books each year. Primary areas of interest are Mississippi history and literature, but manuscripts in all areas of study are welcomed. Administrative offices of the University Press are located in the Education and Research Complex, 3825 Ridgewood Road, Jackson, Mississippi.

CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

An administrative entity under the Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Center for International Education coordinates all USM programs bringing international students to the United States and all programs sending USM students and those of its consortium members abroad for academic credit.

The Center has three components: the English Language Institute, the Office of International Student Affairs and the Office of International Programs.

The English Language Institute offers intensive language instruction, courses in conversational English, and specialized courses in Business English, English for Science and Technology, and TOEFL Preparation. International students accepted to the Graduate School of the University, and those planning to apply for admission to the Graduate School, often sharpen their language skills at the English Language Institute. For further information, contact the Director, English Language Institute, USM, Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5065, USA.

The Office of International Student Affairs coordinates all facets of international admissions and student services. The ISA provides counseling on immigration regulations, personal matters, culture shock and adjustment, as well as some academic counseling in conjunction with the various departments. The Office processes all international applications, evaluates foreign academic credentials and issues the appropriate immigration documents for the non-immigrant foreign student. Multi-cultural programming for the international students and the community is also coordinated by the ISA.

The ISA Office disseminates USM information to foreign schools, U.S. embassies/ consulates abroad, and non-profit international organizations (such as the Institute for International Education).

This Office also provides information to and immigration documents for research scholars invited by various USM departments to participate in limited research opportunities.

The University enrolls graduate students from outside the United States. Assistance in academic and non-academic matters before and during the international student's stay at the University is provided by the Office of International Student Affairs.

English Language Proficiency: Applicants whose native language is other than English must present the results of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). Exceptions may be made if the applicant has earned a degree at an accredited US college or university. TOEFL requirements vary from program to program, ranging from 525 to 580. See Admission Requirements for international students under the department listing for specific TOEFL requirements.

English Instruction: Applicants who meet all admission requirements except English language proficiency can consider enrolling in the USM English Language Institute prior to academic enrollment. The Institutional TOEFL is offered periodically at the ELI for enrolled students. Its scores cannot be sent to other institutions. For information about the English Language Institute, write English Language Institute, Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5065, USA.

Admission Requirements: Appropriate graduate test scores are also required. The minimum GRE is 850. The minimum GMAT is 400. Official transcripts with degrees posted must be submitted for each school attended.

Financial Resources: In order to meet requirements for entry into the United States for study, applicants must demonstrate sufficient financial resources to meet expected costs of their entire educational program. Applicants must provide documentary evidence of their financial resources for university study since USM has no special funds for financial assistance to international students.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES

Since applicants must always be admitted to a specific program within the Graduate School, all applications for admission to the Graduate School are closely reviewed and must be approved by the chair of the department in which the student intends to study, by the college dean, and by the Graduate Dean. Admission forms are procurable from and should be submitted to the Graduate Admissions Office.

The aptitude phase (verbal and quantitative sections) of the Graduate Record Examinations (GRE) is required of all applicants to the Graduate School except in the College of Business Administration, which requires the Graduate Management Admissions Test (GMAT), and in some departments of the College of Education and Psychology, which accept the National Teacher Examinations (NTE) or the Miller Analogies Test (MAT). Prospective students should plan to take the appropriate examination, given several times a year at a number of university testing centers, early in their senior year and request that a copy of their scores be sent to the Graduate Admissions Office.

The academic record, character, and conditions of application of the applicant must be in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Board of Trustees of State Institutions of Higher Learning and with the laws of the State of Mississippi. The applicant must have excellent moral character in conformity with the generally accepted standards customarily in effect in the University.

The University reserves the right to cancel the admission or registration of an individual whose attendance at the University, in the opinion of the appropriate administrative officer and the President, would not be beneficial to the student and/or to the institution.

Any student who is denied admission, whose admission is suspended, or who questions the type of admission granted, may have his or her case reviewed by the Graduate Committee for Admissions and Credits. To initiate the review procedure, the student should send a written request to the Dean of the Graduate School, Southern Station Box 5024, Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5024. Any request for review must be made within one year of the date of the denial or suspension or it cannot be considered by the Committee.

It should be clearly understood that the admission requirements listed below represent the minimal standards set by the Graduate Council and that additional requirements and higher standards may well be stipulated by the various department chairs. Applicants should check for such requirements in the departmental section of this Bulletin.

TYPES OF ADMISSION TO MASTER'S PROGRAMS

An applicant may be granted regular or conditional admission to a masters program, or may be admitted as a non-degree graduate student.

I. Regular Admission

- A. The applicant must hold a baccalaureate degree from an institution approved by a recognized accrediting agency.
- B. The applicant must be eligible to re-enter in good standing the last college or university attended.
- C. The applicant must present evidence, by official transcript (two copies), of a grade point average of at least 2.75 (figured on an A equals 4.0 scale) for the last two years of undergraduate study, and a grade point average of at least 3.0 on undergraduate courses in the field of proposed graduate study. Any exception to this requirement must be cleared with the appropriate department chair, the dean concerned, and the Graduate Dean.
- D. Applicants must present acceptable test scores (GRE, GMAT, NTE or MAT). Consult specific departmental requirements for this information.
- E. The appropriate department chair, the college dean, and the Graduate Dean must be satisfied that the applicant shows promise of satisfying graduate degree requirements.

II. Conditional Admission

A student who does not meet the minimum admission standards for either grade point average or test scores (GRE, GMAT, NTE or MAT) may be admitted on a conditional basis in one of two ways:

- A. Present a test score acceptable for regular admission and a grade point average no lower than 2.50.
- B. Present a grade point average of 2.75 or above if the score is lower than that acceptable for regular admission.

Conditional admission can be given only upon the specific recommendation of the department chair, the college dean, and the Graduate Dean.

A conditional student at the master's level must maintain a grade point average of at least 3.00 on the first nine (9) semester hours of course work numbered 500 or above or on all courses taken while completing this nine hour requirement. This requirement must be met or the student will not be allowed to continue to seek a master's degree.

All courses taken to remove conditional admission must be taken on a campus of The University of Southern Mississippi. Upon recommendation of the department chair and approval by the Dean of the Graduate School, the conditional admission will be removed and the student reclassified as a regular student.

III. Non-Degree Graduate Student

Admission as a non-degree graduate student may be granted for any of the following reasons:

A. He or she did not meet requirements for conditional or regular admission before the deadline.

B. He or she may or may not be able to meet admission requirements but does not desire to work toward a graduate degree.

C. He or she is enrolled in another university and desires to obtain credit from The University of Southern Mississippi to be transferred to the graduate school in which he or she is seeking a degree.

Regulations Governing Non-Degree Graduate Students

Even though a non-degree graduate student has been admitted to the University, he or she has not been admitted to any department or to any degree program. Moreover, no credit earned beyond the master's degree while classified as a non-degree student may be applied toward the doctoral degree. Unclear and non-degree students are not allowed to enroll in graduate courses in some departments. It is the responsibility of these students to check admission standards of the individual colleges before enrolling in their courses.

To be allowed to continue as a non-degree graduate student, the student must consult with the department chair or academic adviser of the department in which he or she is taking courses during the first semester enrolled at the University regardless of whether or not the student plans to seek a degree.

A non-degree graduate student must hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution. No more than nine (9) semester hours earned while classified as a non-degree graduate student will be accepted toward a master's degree at The University of Southern Mississippi. A student must, therefore, gain conditional or regular admission before completing more than nine (9) semester hours of study for additional hours to be counted toward a master's degree.

TYPES OF ADMISSION TO ADVANCED GRADUATE STUDY

Advanced graduate programs leading to the specialist's degree or various doctoral degrees are available to qualified students. An applicant may be granted regular or conditional admission to these programs, or may be admitted as a non-degree graduate student.

I. Regular Admission

For regular admission to advanced graduate study, a student must present a grade point average no lower than 3.25 for the specialist's program or 3.50 for the doctoral program on previous graduate work and an acceptable test score on the aptitude phase of the Graduate Record Examinations (GRE). Some departments in the College of Education and Psychology accept the National Teacher Examinations (NTE) or the Miller Analogies Test (MAT) for admission to the specialist's program. All students seeking admission to a doctoral program must present scores on the aptitude phase of the GRE. Consult departmental requirements for the scores required for specific degree programs.

II. Conditional Admission

For conditional admission to a specialist's program, a student must present either (a) a grade point average of between 3.00 and 3.25 and an acceptable test score (GRE or, where applicable, the NTE or MAT), or (b) a grade point average no lower than 3.25 if the test score does not meet the acceptable score for regular admission. For conditional admission to a doctoral program, a student must present either (a) a grade point average of between 3.25 and 3.50 and an acceptable test score (GRE), or (b) a grade point average no lower than 3.50 if the GRE score does not meet the acceptable score for regular admission.

A conditional student at the advanced graduate level must maintain a grade point average of at least 3.25 on the first nine (9) semester hours of course work numbered 600 or above or on all courses taken while completing this nine hour requirement. This requirement must be met or the student will not be allowed to continue to seek an advanced degree.

All courses taken to remove conditional admission must be taken on a campus of The University of Southern Mississippi. Upon recommendation of the department chair and approval by the Dean of the Graduate School, the conditional admission will be removed and the student reclassified as a regular student.

For students who have their department's approval to change from the master's or specialist's program to a higher degree program, the chair and the dean should request the change in a written memorandum to the Graduate School Office. The Graduate School Office will verify that the minimum requirements for the higher degree are met.

III. Non-Degree Graduate Student

An applicant for advanced study may be admitted as a non-degree graduate student; however, no credit earned as a non-degree graduate student may be applied to doctoral degrees.

Limitations on University Faculty Members

Members of the faculty of the University of Southern Mississippi above the rank of instructor cannot become candidates for a doctoral degree at this institution. They may, however, enroll for graduate courses. Faculty members of the rank of instructor may become candidates for doctoral degrees at The University of Southern Mississippi on the same terms as any other advanced graduate student candidate.

PROCEDURES FOR APPLYING FOR ADMISSION

- Application materials are available from the Office of Graduate Admissions, Southern Station Box 10066, Hattiesburg, MS 39406-0066.
- II. All credentials (application, recommendations, two official transcripts from each institution attended) must be submitted to the Director of Graduate Admissions by the deadline published in the University Calendar.
- III. After all credentials are received, the Graduate Admissions Office will compute the applicant's grade point average and will forward the application and transcript to the appropriate department chair, college dean, and the Graduate Dean. As soon as the application has been processed by the department chair, the college dean concerned, and the Graduate Dean, the Office of Graduate Admissions will notify the applicant of the University's decision on the request for admission.

Permission for Undergraduate Seniors to Register for Graduate Credit

Exceptionally well qualified undergraduate students at The University of Southern Mississippi may apply to the Graduate Office for permission to take course work for graduate credit if they are within nine (9) semester hours of meeting bachelor's degree requirements as certified by the University Registrar. If the Graduate Dean approves, the student may then register for graduate courses up to a maximum of six (6) semester hours of graduate credit with a total course load not exceeding twelve (12) semester hours. The student must complete requirements for the baccalaureate degree within the first semester/term in which he or she registers for graduate courses. The student's application for admission to the Graduate School will not be given final approval until after he or she satisfies all requirements for the baccalaureate degree.

An undergraduate student from another institution desiring to take courses as listed above should have a transcript sent to the Dean of the Graduate School. The student should also file an application.

STUDENT EXPENSES

The University of Southern Mississippi is supported chiefly by legislative appropriations. Increases in student fees are put into effect only when public support funds are inadequate and no other recourse is available. Increases are made only for support of the institution or improvement of the activity program of the students; therefore the University must reserve the right to increase or modify fees and expenses without prior notice but with approval of the Board of Trustees of State Institutions of Higher Learning.

Fees and expenses are in the form of general tuition, room and board, and special fees.

GENERAL TUITION. This fee, together with the allocation from the legislative appropriation, is used for general support of the University. Athletic activities and UAC programs are not included for part-time students.

Full-time students for purposes of assessing fees are those who take nine (9) or more semester hours in Graduate School and twelve (12) or more semester hours in all other colleges during fall and spring semesters. During summer terms, seven (7) or more semester hours for Graduate School and nine (9) or more semester hours in all other colleges constitute full-time students for purposes of assessing fees. Undergraduate students enrolled for more than nineteen (19) semester hours during fall and spring semesters and for more than fourteen (14) semester hours during the summer term will be assessed the applicable fee for each additional semester hour. Graduate students enrolled for more than thirteen (13) semester hours during fall and spring semesters and for more than fourteen (14) semester hours during the summer term will be assessed the applicable fee for each additional semester hour.

Clinical and hospital services covered by the health service charge included in the general tuition fee are limited to cases of ordinary illness. Services are provided within the limits of the professional, technical, and physical resources of the Clinic. The University does not assume responsibility in cases of extended illness or for treatment of chronic diseases. Cases requiring surgery must be handled by a physician and hospital of the student's choice and at the student's expense.

ROOM AND BOARD. The room and board fees are assessed for all students living in University controlled residence halls and those students living in fraternity houses. Board is available to all other students on an optional basis. Two meal plans are available; a seven-day 21 meal plan and a five-day 15 meal plan. Lite Line meals and diet counseling are available at no extra

A room deposit is payable in advance for the reservation of space in the residence hall. This amount is held as a damage deposit until a student withdraws from the residence hall. Upon withdrawal, the student must make an application to the Resident Manager of the dormitory for refund. When a student reserves a room in a residence hall, he or she obligates himself or herself to pay for both fall and spring semesters' room rent unless the student cancels his or her assignment in writing before the residence halls open for the fall semester. A rent refund will be made only upon withdrawal from the University.

TELEPHONE SERVICE. Telephone service in residence halls and family student housing is provided to students through the University telephone system. The cost of sharing local telephone service is included as a part of housing rent. For long distance service, students may use the University's system by completing an application at the Campus Telephone Office, Hub Building, Room 104. Long distance telephone authorization and a caller identification will then be issued. Long distance calls are billed to the student on a monthly basis. Charges must be settled prior to leaving the University (including graduation, withdrawal, and semester breaks).

POST OFFICE BOX. The post office box fee is assessed for all students living in Universitycontrolled housing. Those students living off campus may rent a post office box if they so desire.

STUDENT IDENTIFICATION CARDS. The ID card is a permanent card for each student. The fall semester (permanent) ID card will also be used for spring and summer semesters each year by revalidation. The same card must be kept, re-validated and used even when returning from a previous year or semester. Do not destroy, lose, bend or tamper with an ID card. Only one card will be issued at no charge during a five (5) year period. A fee of $10.00 will be charged at the time a replacement card is made.

OTHER FINANCIAL INFORMATION. One-half of a student's total fees are due and payable at the time of registration. Students with University loans, grants, or scholarships may use those funds as payment for the first half of total fees. Loans, grants, scholarships, and checks made payable to the University must be applied to fees in full before a refund or change can be given. Fees deferred past the day to register each term will be billed monthly. A monthly service charge of 1.5% will be applied to the unpaid balance.

The University reserves the right to withhold readmission to a student until all delinquent accounts have been paid. In fact, all past due accounts will be included on registration fee invoices and monthly bills. Transcripts of credits will not be issued for students whose accounts are delinquent. All fees must be paid before a degree will be awarded.

Fines accumulated as a result of failure to adhere to the established procedures of the University, such as Library and Public Safety regulations, or any other policy establishing regulations for the protection of University property, shall become collectable by the Business Office, and, if not collected, shall constitute a delinquent account.

A non-refundable registration fee of $5.00 will be assessed all students.

A fee of $50.00 will be assessed students who register during the late registration period.

Students whose checks for registration fees are returned will be assessed the late registration fee of $50.00 in addition to the $6.00 returned check handling fee. Returned checks not promptly paid may result in dismissal from the University.

A fee of $15.00 for operation of the University Union is included in the fees of all full-time students. A $1.00 fee is added to the general tuition fee assessment of part-time students.

A $2.00 per hour fee for use of the University Clinic by part-time students is included in the per hour fee shown below.

A fee of $3.00 for Intramural Facilities is included in the fees of all full-time students. A $1.00 fee is added to the general tuition fee assessment of part-time students.

A special building fee will be assessed each semester for the purpose of constructing the Payne Center. These fees are shown below. The students at The University of Southern Mississippi voted April 10, 1984 in favor of this fee.

Courses requiring special fees and music fees are shown in the Special Fee listing and are indicated by a plus sign in the Course Description Section of this Bulletin.

RESIDENCE STATUS

LEGAL RESIDENCE OF STUDENTS: The definitions and conditions stated here are as required by state law in the classification of students as residents or nonresidents for the assessment of fees. Requests for a review of residency classification should be submitted to the Office of Admissions and Records; forms for this purpose are available from the Office of Admissions and Records

A MINOR: The residence of a person less than twenty-one years of age is that of the father. After the death of the father, the residence of the minor is that of the mother. If the parents are divorced, the residence of the minor is that of the parent who was granted custody by the court; or, if custody was not granted, the residence continues to be that of the father. If both parents are dead, the residence of the minor is that of the last surviving parent at the time of that parent's death, unless the minor lives with a legal guardian of his or her person duly appointed by a proper court of Mississippi, in which case his or her residence becomes that of the guardian.

AN ADULT: The residence of an adult is that place where he or she is domiciled, that is, the place where he or she actually physically resides with the intention of remaining there indefinitely or of returning there permanently when temporarily absent. Adult students who are residing outside of the State of Mississippi, but whose parents have moved to this state and have become residents, must establish residence in their own right. In determining residence for tuition purposes for persons who return to Mississippi after temporary departures such as school attendance, work elsewhere or military service, cognizance is taken of evidence showing continuity of state residence and demonstrated intent to return to the state.

REMOVAL OF PARENTS FROM MISSISSIPPI: If the parents of a minor who is enrolled as a student in an institution of higher learning move their legal residence from the State of Mississippi, the minor is immediately classified as a nonresident student.

TWELVE MONTHS OF RESIDENCE REQUIRED: No student may be admitted to the University as a resident of Mississippi unless his or her residence, as defined herein-above, has been in the State of Mississippi for a continuous period of at least twelve months immediately preceding his or her admission.

A student who has lived within the state for twelve months following his or her twenty-first birthday may establish residence in his or her own right by showing that he or she is living in the state with the intention of abandoning his or her former domicile and remaining in the State of Mississippi permanently, or for an indefinite length of time. Intent may be demonstrated or disproved by factors including, but not limited to, filing of Mississippi income tax returns, eligibility to vote in Mississippi, motor vehicle registration in Mississippi, possession of Mississippi operator's license, place of employment, and self support.

RESIDENCE STATUS OF A MARRIED PERSON: A married person may claim the residence of his or her spouse.

CHILDREN OF PARENTS WHO ARE EMPLOYED BY THE UNIVERSITY: Children of parents who are members of the faculty or staff of the University may be classified as residents without regard to the residence requirements of twelve months.

MILITARY PERSONNEL ASSIGNED ON ACTIVE DUTY STATION IN MISSISSIPPI: Members of the armed forces on extended active duty and stationed within the State of Mississippi may be classified as residents, without regard to the residence requirement of twelve months, for the purpose of attendance at the University. Resident status of such military personnel who are not legal residents of Mississippi, as defined above under LEGAL RESIDENCE OF AN ADULT, shall terminate upon their reassignment for duty in the continental United States outside the State of Mississippi.

CHILDREN OF MILITARY PERSONNEL: Resident status of children of members of the armed forces on extended active duty shall be that of the military parent for the purpose of attending the University during the time that their military parents are stationed within the State of Mississippi and shall be continued through the time that military parents are stationed in an overseas area with last duty assignment within the State of Mississippi, excepting temporary training assignments en route from Mississippi. Resident status of minor children shall terminate upon reassignment under permanent change of station orders of their military parents for duty in the continental United States outside the State of Mississippi, excepting temporary training assignments en route from Mississippi.

CERTIFICATION OF RESIDENCE OF MILITARY PERSONNEL: A military person on active duty stationed in Mississippi who wishes to avail himself or herself or his or her dependents of the provisions of the paragraph titled MILITARY PERSONNEL ASSIGNED ON ACTIVE DUTY STATION IN MISSISSIPPI must submit a certificate from his or her military organization showing the name of the military member, the name of the dependent, if for a dependent, the name of the organization of assignment and its address (may be in the letterhead), that the military member will be on active duty stationed in Mississippi on the date of registration at the University; that the military member is not on transfer orders; and the signature of the commanding officer, the adjutant, or the personnel officer of the unit of assignment with signer's rank and title. A military certificate must be presented to the Registrar of the University each semester at (or within ten days prior to) registration for the provisions of the paragraph MILITARY PERSONNEL ASSIGNED ON ACTIVE DUTY STATION IN MISSISSIPPI, named above, to be effective.

LEGAL RESIDENCE OF A FOREIGN STUDENT: Students with permanent immigrant status or refugee status can establish residence in the state by meeting the provisions of the Mississippi Statute.

PETITIONS FOR CHANGE OF RESIDENCY: Petitions for change of residency must be made on or before the last day of late registration. Forms are available in the Office of Admissions and Records

STUDENTS HOLDING ASSISTANTSHIPS: Non-resident students holding University financed assistantships will not be required to pay the non-resident fee during the time they hold such appointments.

AVAILABLE FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

At present the University has available some 400 master's and 150 doctoral University assistantships in all areas as well as fellowships provided by federal and private agencies. Though amounts may vary from department to department. University assistantships range from $3400 to $6000 per academic year at the master's level and from $4800 to $12,000 per academic year at the doctoral level and entail one-half time of teaching or research assignment. To maintain an assistantship a student must have an average of B or better each semester. General tuition and the non-resident fee are waived for graduate assistantship holders. To qualify for this waiver, students on assistantships must be registered for courses totaling twelve (12) hours each semester (9 hours during Summer term and for students at the Gulf Park Campus). Courses taken as Audit do not count toward these hours. The University also currently waives out-of-state tuition for students on sabbatical leave with pay from schools and colleges.

Inquiries regarding assistantships should be directed to the Dean of the Graduate School.

Applications for assistantships must be filed by May 15.

The Perkins Loan Program (formerly NDSL), College Work-Study Program, and State Student Incentive Grant are also available to graduate students. (See the Financial Aid section of the Undergraduate Bulletin for detailed information about the Perkins & CWSP Programs.) Applicants for Perkins Loans and College Work-Study Program should apply by March 15 (priority date) for loans and work to begin the fall term. Applications for the Perkins Loan Program, College Work-Study Program, and State Student Incentive Grants may be secured by writing the Director of Financial Aid. Students who reside outside the State of Mississippi should contact their State Department of Education to determine source of Insured Loans used by their state.

The Office of Placement Services, located on the first floor of McLemore Hall, offers the student two types of employment while attending the University: part-time employment, cooperative education employment, as well as career employment upon graduation.

The Student Employment Division offers the student an opportunity to obtain part-time employment while enrolled as a regular student at USM. The service is comprehensive in that it will involve jobs for work-study as well as non-work-study both on and off campus.

The Cooperative Education Program affords the student the opportunity to gain a complete education with periods of work related to the student's major. The Cooperative Education Office assists in securing meaningful jobs that will give the student practical work experience and financial support to aid in his or her education. The basic qualifications for the undergraduate Co-op Programs are as follows:

1. The student must maintain at least a 2.50 GPA.

2. The student must attend USM or a regional campus at least one semester prior to his or her placement.

A student is eligible to enter the program at any time during his or her career at USM. Transfer students who have been in a co-op program with another university may transfer into the USM program and maintain their original job.

Salaries of co-op students vary depending on the type of degree they are pursuing and the amount of co-op experience they have.

The Office of Cooperative Education will determine the eligibility of the student to participate in the program. Each student's record of performance will be periodically reviewed, once an active participant, and he or she may be placed on probation or removed from the program when not meeting minimum requirements.

Academic credit for work assignment will be determined by the student's major department and is not necessarily a part of the program.

The Career Employment Division provides assistance to graduating seniors, graduates, and alumni in obtaining career employment upon or after graduation. Students seeking career employment should register with the Career Employment Division and establish a placement credentials folder during the last semester of their junior year or the first semester of their senior year. These credentials are valuable to prospective employers who are seeking information on college graduates for possible employment. The services may be used by the graduate as often as is needed.

GENERAL ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS

It is reasonable to assume that a graduate student accepts full responsibility for knowing the policies and regulations of the Graduate School and the departmental requirements relevant to his or her individual degree program.

Only the general academic regulations and requirements governing all graduate programs are given below. Specific requirements pertaining to individual degree programs are outlined within the department sections.

Course Work and Grading System

Courses open to graduate students for graduate credit are those numbered 500 or above.

Many courses have certain prerequisites. A student who wishes to register for a particular course must satisfy the department concerned that he or she has had preparation adequate for admission to the course.

The grading system in the Graduate School is as follows:

Indicates that the student's work is of unusually high quality.

Indicates that the student's work is of high but not exceptional quality. B-

Indicates that the student has met the minimum requirements for passing the course.

Indicates that the student's work is below that which is expected of a graduate student. A course in which the student has earned a grade of D will not apply toward a graduate degree. A student who earns more than six (6) semester hours in grades of D or below may not be considered as a candidate for a degree.

Indicates a course in progress. It is to be used only for thesis and dissertation credit while in progress.

- F— Indicates that the student has failed the course. A student who accumulates more than three (3) semester hours of F grades will not be considered as a candidate for a degree.
- Indicates an incomplete record. An I is treated as an F if not removed within one term of
- P__ Indicates completion of thesis and dissertation credit and is assigned only upon completion. Also used for grades in courses numbered 697 and 797.

Indicates withdrawal from a course passing.

Indicates failure to drop or withdraw properly before deadline. Upon completion of the drop/withdrawal form by the student in the Office of Admissions and Records, the Registrar is authorized to replace the grade of X with a W.

Fuller explanation of the grading system is in the Undergraduate Bulletin.

The general regulation that degree work must be completed within a six-year period applies to all course work.

A grade-point average of B or better is required of all candidates for graduate degrees by the time they complete the course-hour requirements for the degree.

On the recommendation of the student's committee or major professor, a student may retake one graduate level course in order to improve his grade point average.

Grade Review Policy

The instructor (defined as one who has the responsibility for a class, special problem, thesis or dissertation) has the authority in his or her class over all matters affecting the conduct of the class, including the assignment of grades. Student performance should be evaluated according to academic criteria made available to all students within the first two weeks of each semester. Grades should not be determined in an arbitrary or capricious manner.

When a student disagrees with the final grade given by an instructor, fair play requires the opportunity for an orderly appellate procedure. The procedure assures due process for both the instructor and student. For policies and procedures governing grade review, contact the dean of the appropriate college or the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Course Loads

I. Although the maximum load of a full-time graduate student is sixteen (16) semester hours, the normal load for a full-time graduate student is generally considered to be twelve (12)

II. The minimum load for a full-time graduate student is nine (9) semester hours for students living in Pine Haven, using the services of the Clinic, using the services of Veteran's Affairs, or using other such services of the University.

III. Twelve (12) hours is the maximum load for a graduate fellow teaching one undergraduate class or its equivalent. In no case may the total hours involved in a student's program, including both the course work and the assistantship assignment, exceed sixteen (16) hours.

IV. The courses numbered 697 and 797—Independent Study and Research—may be taken for any amount of credit (up to a maximum of sixteen (16) hours in any one semester) with the exception that students who are not in residence but who are actively working on a thesis, research problem, or dissertation and consulting with the major professor or making use of the library or other University facilities must enroll for at least three (3) hours each semester

V. Students enrolling only for 698, 798, or 898 or courses entitled "Internship" such as CPY 861 should enroll for a minimum of three hours, or PSY 796 for a minimum of four hours.

VI. Students enrolling only for 691, 791, or 891 (or other courses titled "Research in...") should enroll for a minimum of three hours.

MASTER'S DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

A convenient checklist of master's degree requirements may be procured in the Graduate Office.

I. Credit Hours

A minimum of thirty (30) semester hours credit is required for any master's degree. Some departments require more than the minimum. Consult specific college and departmental requirements for additional information.

II. Time Limitation

The student must complete the master's degree within six calendar years from the date of initial enrollment in a graduate program. Six years is the maximum age allowed for graduate credits toward a master's degree. If more than six years are needed to complete requirements, the Graduate Dean, under extenuating circumstances, may revalidate over-age credit hours if the original credit was earned at The University of Southern Mississippi and if the dean of the college concerned approves the revalidation. The revalidation is secured by the student's successfully passing a special examination on the course. However, any student who fails to complete the master's degree program within the six-year time period becomes subject to any changes in degree requirements made at any date six years prior to graduation. The fee charged for the special revalidation examination is $30.00 per course. The fee is to be paid before the validation examination is taken. Over-age extension courses cannot be revalidated.

III. Credit Hours Limitations

A. At least half of the semester hours required for a degree program must be earned on a campus of the University of Southern Mississippi.

B. A minimum of fifty per cent of the credit carned at the University of Southern Mississippi must be taken on the campus from which the degree is awarded.

C. A minimum of eighteen (18) semester hours must be in courses numbered 600 or above. Master of Business Administration degree candidates are permitted to take a maximum of one 500-level course.

D. A total of no more than nine (9) semester hours of work earned as a non-degree student may be applied toward a master's degree. Please note F below.

E. As many as six (6) semester hours of graduate credit from other accredited institutions may be transferred to the student's program with the approval of the appropriate department chair and the Graduate Dean provided that the course work transferred falls within the six-year period allowed for the degree.

F. A total of no more than nine (9) semester hours of transfer work and non-degree work may be applied toward a master's degree.

IV. The Master's Committee

The student's work toward the master's degree is supervised by a departmental committee composed of a chair and at least two members recommended by the department chair and appointed by the Graduate Dean.

V. The Minor Field

If a minor field is required in the master's program, it shall consist of a minimum of nine (9) semester hours of course work.

VI. The Master's Thesis

A. The degree of Master of Arts entails the writing of a thesis (698. Thesis, 6 hrs.). For the degrees of Master of Science and Master of Education, some programs offer a non-thesis option. Students intending to pursue a degree higher than the master's are encouraged to write a thesis.

B. As appropriate, the Human Subjects Protection Review Committee and/or the Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee must approve the thesis topic.

C. A separate bulletin outlining University requirements concerning the preparation of theses is available in the Graduate Office.

D. The student must register for at least three (3) hours of 698 during the semester/term in which he or she expects to defend the thesis. Students who have previously registered for the maximum total of six (6) hours of 698, and/or who are not in residence, but who are actively working on a thesis, consulting with the major professor, and/or using other resources of the University, must register for at least three (3) hours of 697-Independent Study and Research.

VII. Examinations

- A. The aptitude phase of the Graduate Record Examinations or the Graduate Management Admission Test is required for admission into the Graduate School. Individual departments may require the advanced area tests. Some departments in the College of Education and Psychology accept the National Teacher Examinations or the Miller Analogies Test.
- B. Some master's degree programs, particularly programs leading to the Master of Arts, include a foreign language requirement. Students should refer to the section of this Bulletin describing individual departments and schools to determine whether specific requirements have been established for a program of interest. A student may demonstrate proficiency in a foreign language by any of several options; the particular option followed by the student must have the approval of the student's advisory committee and the Dean of the Graduate School. The options are as follows:

 Completion of six (6) semester hours with grades of C or better in one of the following language sequences: FRE 501-502, SPA 501-502, or GER 501-502. These courses are specifically designed to meet The University of Southern Mississippi

Graduate School foreign language requirements.

2. Completion of nine (9) semester hours (undergraduate or graduate) with grades of C or better in an approved foreign language. The courses listed above in option 1 may not be included as part of these 9 hours. The student may transfer these hours from an accredited institution upon admission to the Graduate School, provided that the most advanced of the courses was taken within the last six (6) calendar years. After admission, courses taken to satisfy the foreign language requirement by this option must be taken at The University of Southern Mississippi or may be taken at another institution if written approval of the specific courses and institution is obtained from the student's advisory committee, the chair of the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, and the Dean of the Graduate School.

Completion of the Graduate School Foreign Language Test (GSFLT) with a score of 460 or above. Students may procure the proper registration forms for this examination from the Office of the Director of Student Counseling. This examination is available in French, German, Spanish, and Russian.

Demonstration of proficiency by any means other than these options must be done by a method recommended and approved by the student's advisory committee, the Chair of the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, and the Dean of the Graduate School.

C. In addition to regular examinations, final comprehensive examinations are required for master's degrees. The major department will determine whether the comprehensive examination will be written or oral or both. The written comprehensive, if required, will be prepared by the student's committee and will cover the area of the major field. If an oral examination is required, the chair of the student's committee will send written notices of the time and place of the examination. Comprehensive examinations, whether written or oral, will be administered no later than the last week of the semester/term in which the student expects to receive the degree and the results reported by the department chair to the University Registrar and to the Graduate Office no later than the last day for presenting signed theses to the Graduate Office. The examination may be administered earlier in the semester/term if the department so desires. A student who fails the comprehensive examination may not retake the examination until its next regular administration and may repeat the examination only once.

SPECIALIST'S DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

The specialist's degree earned in the Departments of Educational Leadership and Research, Business and Industrial Education, Curriculum and Instruction, Counseling Psychology and Counselor Education, English, Home Economics Education and Family Life Studies, Physical Education, and Special Education provides sixth-year programs designed to prepare students for positions in school administration, advanced technical education for business, teacher training, and counseling, and to develop research and evaluation specialists for the public schools. Individual programs and requirements are fully described in the departmental sections of this Bulletin.

Students who are seeking the specialist's degree must meet all degree requirements relating to the master's degree, must earn at least thirty-three (33) semester hours beyond the master's degree, must write an acceptable thesis (798) and defend it via an oral examination, or complete a field-based problem, and must complete one full-time semester/term of residence taking all nine (9) semester hours on the Hattiesburg Campus.

A maximum of nine (9) semester hours earned as a non-degree student may be applied to the specialist's degree.

DOCTORAL DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

A convenient checklist of doctoral degree requirements may be procured in the Graduate Office.

I. Credit Hours

All doctoral degrees entail a minimum of eighty-four (84) semester hours of course work beyond the bachelor's degree or fifty-four (54) semester hours of course work beyond the master's degree.

II. Time Limitations

Courses taken above the master's degree or its equivalent which will fit into the degree program but which are six or more years old at the time of admission to the advanced graduate program may be counted toward meeting degree requirements when recommended by the department chair and approved by the Graduate Dean. The comprehensive examination must be completed within a period of six years after the student has been admitted to advanced graduate standing at the University of Southern Mississippi.

III. Credit Hour Limitations

A. A minimum of thirty-two (32) semester hours of work beyond the master's degree must be earned on the University's Hattiesburg Campus.

- B. Transfer of credit for graduate work done at other institutions must be approved by the department chair and Graduate Dean. Final evaluation of and acceptance of transfer credit will not be made until the student has been in residence for one semester/term. Transfer of credit for doctoral degree programs is limited to not more than six (6) semester hours or nine (9) quarter hours beyond the master's degree. Exceptions to this restriction may be made with the approval of the department chair and the Graduate Dean.
- C. Credit earned as a non-degree graduate student cannot be applied toward a doctoral degree.

IV. Residency

Residency "refers to a period during which the candidate is on the campus engaged in intensive study, sustained association with faculty members and other colleagues who share common scholarly and professional interests, attendance at seminars and colloquia, intensive reading and familiarization with library resources, consultation with specialists in other disciplines and resource centers, and the opportunity for broadened exposure to current intellectual issues as they are revealed in various campus offerings. In short, the requirement is not an inflicted ritual, but an opportunity." ¹

The residency requirements for the doctoral degree can be fulfilled by the completion of 24 graduate hours of continuous study on the Hattiesburg Campus within the time limit of a minimum of two consecutive semesters (including the full summer session). During this period the student is obligated to devote full time to graduate work and to earn at least 12 semester hours of credit in each of the two semesters. Residency may begin only after the student is admitted to a doctoral program as a regular student.

A student should not attempt to fulfill the residency requirements if he or she is gainfully employed full-time.

While the above are generalized University residency requirements, students are reminded that many departments have additional residency requirements and some departments have specialized options to meet particular needs. Therefore, all residency plans must be approved in writing by the department chair before residency is begun.

¹R. Kruh, Council of Graduate Schools in the United States, September, 1977.

V. The Doctoral Committee

The student's work toward the doctoral degree is supervised by a departmental committee composed of a chair and at least four members recommended by the department chair and appointed by the Graduate Dean. Qualified individuals from outside the University may serve if they have specialized knowledge needed by the student.

VI. The Minor Field

If a minor field is required in the doctoral program, it shall consist of twelve (12) semester hours of course work and may consist of courses from a number of related areas.

VII. Examinations

A. The aptitude phase of the Graduate Record Examinations or the Graduate Management Admission Test is required for admission into the Graduate School. Individual departments may require the advanced area tests.

B. The Miller Analogies Test is a departmental option for doctoral students in the College of Education and Psychology.

C. The foreign language and statistics requirements for the doctoral degree may be fulfilled in several ways: 1. The Doctor of Education degree does not require foreign language proficiency. However, the student must establish proficiency in statistics or computer science either by examination or by completing a prescribed course sequence, the credit hours for which do not apply toward the degree.

Doctor of Music Education and Doctor of Musical Arts degrees require proficiency in at least one foreign language. Students in these programs should refer to the section of this Bulletin describing those programs and should consult the appropriate department chair for more information.

- 2. The Doctor of Philosophy degree requires either (a) proficiency in two languages, (b) proficiency in one language and in statistics or computer science, or (c) proficiency in one language and the completion of a nine-hour minor, the hours for which do not apply toward the degree. The procedure for satisfying proficiency in a specific computer language has been approved by the Graduate Council and is administered by the Department of Computer Science and Statistics. Students should refer to the section of this Bulletin describing individual departments and schools to determine whether specific requirements have been established for a program of interest. A request to use a language (including native language) other than French, German, Spanish, or Russian shall include evidence of research reported in the language (e.g. a bibliography), and must be recommended by the student's advisory committee and approved by the Dean of the Graduate School. A student may demonstrate proficiency in a foreign language by any of several options; the particular option followed by the student must have the approval of the student's advisory committee and the Dean of the Graduate School. The options are as follows:
 - 1. Completion of six (6) semester hours with grades of C or better in one of the following language sequences: FRE 501-502, SPA 501-502, or GER 501-502. These courses are specifically designed to meet The University of Southern Mississippi Graduate School foreign language requirements.
 - 2. Completion of nine (9) semester hours (undergraduate or graduate) with grades of C or better in an approved foreign language. The courses listed above in option 1 may not be included as part of these 9 hours. The student may transfer these hours from an accredited institution upon admission to the Graduate School, provided that the most advanced of the courses was taken within the last six (6) calendar years. After admission, courses taken to satisfy the foreign language requirement by this option must be taken at The University of Southern Mississippi or may be taken at another institution if written approval of the specific courses and institution is obtained from the student's advisory committee, the chair of the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, and the Dean of the Graduate School.
 - 3. Completion of the Graduate School Foreign Language Test (GSFLT) with a score of 460 or above. Students may procure the proper registration forms for this examination from the Office of the Director of Student Counseling. This examination is available in French, German, Spanish, and Russian.

Demonstration of proficiency by any means other than these options must be done by a method recommended and approved by the student's advisory committee, the Chair of the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, and the Dean of the Graduate School

D. All students must have a written and/or oral doctoral qualifying examination in their field. This examination should be taken during the first semester/term of the student's enrollment and is designed both to judge the student's fitness to pursue doctoral work and to guide the advisory committee in planning the student's program. The qualifying examination may be retaken only once.

E. At the completion of specified required course work and other examinations, the doctoral student is required to take a written and/or oral comprehensive examination in his or her major and minor field. A student who does unsatisfactory work on the comprehensive examination may be granted a second examination at the next regularly scheduled time, or later. The student's doctoral committee will recommend the conditions to be met before the examination may be repeated. The comprehensive examinations may be retaken only once.

F. After the dissertation has been accepted and after all required course work has been completed, but at least four weeks before the candidate is scheduled to receive the degree, a final oral examination on the dissertation and related fields (dissertation defense) will be conducted by the student's advisory committee and any other faculty members designated by the Graduate Dean. The examination will be open to any member of the graduate faculty.

VIII. The Dissertation

A. The dissertation topic must be approved by the student's major professor and advisory committee and must be an original and significant contribution to knowledge in the chosen field. As appropriate, the Human Subjects Protection Review Committee and/or the Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee must approve the topic.

B. A separate bulletin outlining University requirements concerning the preparation of dissertations is available in the Graduate Office.

C. The student must complete a total of twelve (12) hours of 898 - Dissertation.
D. The student must register for at least three (3) hours of 898 during the semester/term in which he or she expects to defend the dissertation. Students who have previously registered for the maximum total of twelve (12) hours of 898, and/or who are not in residence, but who are actively working on a dissertation, consulting with the major professor, and/or using other resources of the University must register for at least three (3) hours of 797-Independent Study and Research.

IX.

The doctoral student must file a number of documents with the Graduate Office.

A. After completing all the requirements for the doctoral degree other than the dissertation and at least one semester/term prior to graduation, the student must file two copies of the "Application for Candidacy" form with the Graduate Office and one copy with the adviser, before or at the same time the application for degree is filed.

B. The student should present two copies of the "Application for Degree" form, stamped by the Business Office to verify payment of fees, to the Graduate Office during the semester/term preceding that of graduation.

C. When completed, the student's file in the Graduate Office should contain, in addition to the two documents described above, statements from the adviser and/or department chair appointing the doctoral committee, approving the dissertation prospectus, and verifying the successful completion of the qualifying and comprehensive examinations and dissertation defense. Also contained in the file should be statements of proficiency in language, and/or statistics or computer science, and/or a nine (9) hour minor.

COLLEGE OF THE ARTS

Harold Luce, Dean Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5031 (601) 266-4984

The College of The Arts currently offers graduate degree programs at two levels; master's degree and doctoral degree. Descriptions of these programs can be located in the respective departmental sections.

Deficiencies

The College of The Arts retains the right to determine deficiencies in the preparation of any graduate student, regardless of the number of course credits accumulated. The College will recommend appropriate means of removing such deficiencies.

Examinations and Performance Evaluations

Some degree programs require entrance examinations and/or performance evaluations. Regular admission to any graduate program requires submission of the combined scores (Q + V) received on the Graduate Record Examinations. The departmental sections following in this Bulletin list general requirements for each degree program. Prospective students should confer with the department chair for full details. Approval of the graduate faculty in the appropriate department must be granted before a student will be accepted into a graduate degree program in any area of The Arts

Final comprehensive examinations at or near the completion of the course work are required for all graduate degrees. The type, scope, and dates of the examinations vary, since they are matters of individual departmental policy. Each student pursuing a graduate degree should confer with his or her major professor and department chair for full particulars.

DEGREE PROGRAMS

Prescribed curricula for degree programs are listed below. Some provide great latitude and flexibility in arranging individual degree programs. Course selections must be approved by the student's major professor and graduate advisory committee. The approved course of studies for master's degree students must be filed with the student's department chair prior to the student's second registration. The student's major professor will assist in every way possible, but final responsibility for following all general and departmental regulations lies with the student. Prospective doctoral students must consult with the Coordinator of Graduate Studies prior to initial registration for detailed information about general and departmental regulations.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Peter Ciurczak, Director Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5081 (601) 266-5363

MASTER'S DEGREES

There are two master's degrees available in the School of Music, one with a major in music leading to the Master of Music degree, the other with a major in music education leading to the Master of Music Education degree. Emphasis areas in the Master of Music degree are: Performance, Church Music, Conducting, Music History and Literature, Theory and Composition, and Woodwind Performance and Pedagogy.

Regular admission procedures governing graduate entrance into The University of Southern Mississippi will be required. Details can be found in another section of this Bulletin.

Admission Requirements: Master's Degrees

For regular admission to master's degree programs, a student must have (1) a B average or better on music courses in the undergraduate degree, (2) an overall grade point average of at least 3.0 (A = 4.0) on the last two years of undergraduate study, and (3) a minimum total score (quantitative plus verbal) of 850 on the General Test of the Graduate Record Examinations. Acceptance to the School of Music requires students to meet expectations beyond these; see "Degree Candidacy."

Students who meet the respective grade point average requirements above but are unable to meet the GRE minimums may be considered for conditional admission.

Degree Candidacy: Master's Degrees

Degree Candidacy: Admission to graduate study does not imply admission to candidacy for a master's degree. A maximum of twelve (12) hours of graduate work earned before one has gained admission to the School of Music can be applied toward a degree. To gain degree candidacy (i.e., admission), one must:

a) take Diagnostic Entrance Examinations;

- b) pass a Candidacy Audition (Master of Music degrees only) during the first term of full-time residence or before completing twelve (12) hours of course work; see pages 39 through 42, this Bulletin:
- c) pass all Special Examinations (see specific areas in which the degree may be earned);
- d) consult with the Coordinator of Graduate Studies, have an Advisory Committee appointed, and begin planning the total degree program early in the first term of attendance. This process must be completed before twelve (12) hours have been earned;

e) complete at least 12 hours of graduate course work relevant to one's degree plan with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.0;

f) complete a Degree Contract, approved by the Advisory Committee and the Coordinator of Graduate Studies, before earning twelve (12) semester hours. If the Degree Contract is not on file with the Coordinator before that point, credit hours earned above twelve (12) semester hours will not be counted toward the degree.

Students who have not done the above will be asked to withdraw from the graduate music program.

Entrance Examinations and Auditions: Master's Degrees

Before the first term of residence, all graduate students must take diagnostic examinations in music theory and in music history and literature. Those who show proficiency in these areas must enroll in a graduate theory or history course other than MUS 620: Music Theory Survey and MUS 630: Music History Survey; for all others, MUS 620 and MUS 630 are required. A student with deficiencies may be required to take additional course work beyond the minimum required in the degree program.

Entrance examinations are administered on campus each Monday preceding the first day of classes in Fall, Spring, and Summer.

9:00 a.m. - Theory 10:30 a.m. - Music History and Literature

Entrance examinations are also administered through the mail. To make the testing process feasible, please find a proctor, preferably a teacher in a nearby college or university, to whom we can send copies of your examination. Send the name and address to Coordinator of Graduate Studies.

Entrance auditions are also required for some degrees. These are:

Master of Music in Performance

in Church Music

in Conducting

in Woodwind Performance and Pedagogy

The Master of Music in Theory and Composition and the Doctor of Musical Arts in Composition require submission of representative scores of the prospective student's compositions.

All graduate students should consult the Coordinator of Graduate Studies for current, specific policies governing the advisement of students, the presentation of recitals, and the administration of comprehensive examinations.

Ensemble Participation: Master's Degrees

All full-time graduate students majoring in music and music education are required to participate in an ensemble during each term of residence. A maximum of two (2) hours of graduate credit earned in ensemble work may be counted toward a degree. The ensemble in which one participates will be determined by the student's advisory committee. Appropriate ensembles are: Orchestra, Band, Chamber Music, University Chorale, Jazz Lab Band, Jazz Singers, Collegium Musicum, Oratorio Chorus, University Singers, Chamber Singers, and Opera Theatre.

Special Examinations and Auditions: Master's Degrees

All Special Examinations and Auditions must be passed before one can gain Degree Candidacy.

Comprehensive Examinations: Master's Degrees

Comprehensive examinations are required for all master's degrees.

The test will be prepared by the student's graduate advisory committee; it will cover the area of the major field. As a general rule, the Comprehensive Examination will be written.

The major professor will schedule the Comprehensive Examination; these tests may be administered at any time during the semester, but never later than ten school days before final examination week. The Coordinator of Graduate Studies must receive results of Comprehensive Examinations in time to notify the University Registrar and the Graduate Office no later than the last day for presenting signed theses to the Graduate Office.

A student who fails the Comprehensive Examination may repeat the exam once; the test must be repeated within one year of the first Comprehensive Examination.

Special Problems Courses

Special problems courses must be approved by the Music Graduate Committee. Petitions requesting permission to enroll are available in the Office of the Undergraduate and Graduate Coordinator (Performing Arts Center 209). Petitions must be submitted to the Coordinator by noon of the second day of classes.

Advisory Committee

During the first term of full-time residence or before twelve (12) hours of graduate credit have been earned, the student, the student's major professor, and the Coordinator of Graduate Studies select those faculty who will serve as the student's Advisory Committee.

The major professor, the Coordinator of Graduate Studies, and the student shall develop a Degree Contract. The Advisory Committee members will respond to the contract in full committee session (i.e., a full committee meeting scheduled by the Coordinator of Graduate Studies). In those cases where a student is required to take additional course work beyond the minimum required by the degree, the Advisory Committee will counsel the student and, along with the Coordinator of Graduate Studies, plan the program of studies.

This committee will submit questions for the Comprehensive Examinations; it will also administer the test and grade it.

The Advisory Committee will approve the recital repertoire, will attend the recital,* and will grade the performance as Satisfactory (S) or Unsatisfactory (U); this grade, indicating the majority opinion of the Advisory Committee, must be recorded on the recital program and submitted to the Coordinator of Graduate Studies. Should a recital be judged Unsatisfactory by a majority of the committee, another recital, at a date determined by the Advisory Committee, must take place. Not until all required recitals have been performed and judged Satisfactory will grades received on Comprehensive Examinations be submitted to the University Registrar or to the Graduate Office.

*Before scheduling a recital, the student must ascertain that all members of the Advisory Committee can attend. At least fourteen days before the recital, the student should issue a written invitation to each member of his or her committee.

In degree plans that provide flexibility and in those cases where a student is required to take additional course work beyond the minimum required by the degree, the Advisory Committee will counsel the student and, along with the Coordinator of Graduate Studies, plan the program of studies.

Master of Music Degree Performance (32 hours)

Candidacy Audition:

All students must audition for an appropriate faculty jury. Unless stipulated otherwise (i.e., Brass Performance, Percussion Performance, Piano Performance, Voice Performance), an audition tape will suffice. This audition must be deemed Satisfactory before one can be declared a candidate for the master's degree (i.e., before one completes twelve (12) hours of graduate work; see Degree Candidacy). Early auditions are encouraged.

In all instances other than those in bold-face below, the audition must be at least thirty minutes in length and must include three works of contrasting style, preferably representing three different periods in music. (Repertory lists with representative works are available upon request. Write: Graduate Coordinator, School of Music, The University of Southern Mississippi, S.S. Box 5081, Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5081.)

Brass Performance: For those majoring in brass performance a tape will not suffice; the candidacy audition must be a full recital for the USM brass faculty.

Percussion Performance: For those majoring in percussion performance, the candidacy audition may be on cassette; the applicant should demonstrate proficiency on timpani and mallet keyboards and should include a multiple-percussion performance.

Piano Performance: For those majoring in piano performance, the audition must be memorized, be at least thirty minutes in length, and be performed before the piano faculty; it must include works from at least three different periods in music (e.g., Baroque, Classical, Romantic, Impressionistic, or Contemporary).

Voice Performance: An audition cassette will satisfy preliminary expectations, but before completing twelve (12) hours of graduate work, the student must also sing for a faculty committee and fulfill the requirements below.

Voice performance majors must demonstrate, by audition (1) advanced vocal technique; (2) good diction in Italian, French, German, and English; and (3) good vocal quality and musicianship. The repertoire must be memorized and include (1) an aria from opera or oratorio; (2) a seventeenth- or eighteenth-century Italian song or aria; (3) a German Lied; (4) a French Melodie; and (5) a song in English.

Further, the student's transcript(s) must show grades of C or better in two years of foreign language (any combination of two of the following: German, French, and Italian) and at least one course in diction for singers. Students lacking these will be required to pass these courses in addition to the requirements for the degree. In lieu of course work, satisfactory performance on language exams, administered by the USM Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, is acceptable.

DOCTORAL DEGREES

Three doctoral degrees are available in the School of Music: the Doctor of Music Education, the Doctor of Philosophy in Music Education, and the Doctor of Musical Arts.

Students pursuing the Doctor of Musical Arts degree do so with an emphasis in Performance and Pedagogy. Specific areas in which the D.M.A. may be earned are:

Bassoon Oboe Trumpet Clarinet Organ Tuba Composition Percussion Viola Euphonium Piano Violin Flute Saxophone Violoncello Guitar String Bass Voice Horn Trombone

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Students seeking regular admission to doctoral-level programs at The University of Southern Mississippi must have (1) a graduate grade-point average of at least 3.5 (A = 4.0) on the previously-earned master's degree and (2) a minimum total score (quantitative plus verbal) of 1000 on the General Test of the Graduate Record Examinations.

Students who meet the respective grade-point average requirements above but are unable to meet GRE minimums may be considered for conditional admission. (For details concerning conditional admission, see "Admission Requirements and Procedures," Graduate Bulletin, University of Southern Mississippi.)

Important Note: Acceptance into the doctoral degree programs of the School of Music requires that students meet expectations beyond those stipulated in the Graduate Bulletin; see "Acceptance into the School of Music," this booklet.

ENSEMBLE PARTICIPATION

A maximum of two (2) hours of graduate credit earned in ensemble work may be counted toward a degree. The ensemble in which one participates will be determined by the student's Advisory Committee.

ACCEPTANCE INTO THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Acceptance: Admission to graduate study does not imply acceptance into the School of Music for doctoral-level study. A maximum of twelve hours of graduate work earned before one has gained admission to the School of Music can be applied towards a degree. To gain acceptance, one must:

a) Performance and Pedagogy: possess a master's degree; Music Education: possess a master's degree in music education and have at least three years of successful teaching experience;

b) take Diagnostic Entrance Examinations;

c) pass a Candidacy Audition (D.M.A. in Performance and Pedagogy only) during the first term of full-time residence or before completing twelve (12) hours of course work;

d) submit and gain approval for a portfolio of one's representative scores and/or recordings prior to the first term of enrollment (D.M.A. in Performance and Pedagogy, Composition area only);

e) pass all Entrance Examinations, D.M.A. Special Examinations (see specific areas in which the D.M.A. may be earned), and the Qualifying Examinations during the first term of enrollment or before completing twelve (12) hours of course work;

f) consult with the Coordinator of Graduate Studies, have a major professor and an Advisory Committee appointed, and begin planning the total degree program early in the first term of attendance or before twelve (12) semester hours have been earned; this process must be completed before taking the Qualifying Examination.

g) complete at least twelve (12) hours of graduate course work relevant to one's degree plan with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.5;

h) complete a Degree Planning Sheet, approved by the Advisory Committee and the Coordinator of Graduate Studies, before the beginning of the semester following the initial taking of the Qualifying Examination. If the Degree Planning Sheet is not on file with the Coordinator before the start of that semester, credit hours earned above twelve (12) semester hours will not be counted toward the degree. Doctoral students should be counseled by their Advisory Committee before registering for courses.

EXAMINATIONS

For description of the tests included in the Doctoral Degree Entrance Examinations, Special Examinations, Diagnostic Examinations, Comprehensive Examinations, and Candidacy Auditions, write: Coordinator of Graduate Studies, School of Music, Southern Station Box 5081, University of Southern Mississippi, Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5081.

DIAGNOSTIC ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS

Before enrolling for post-Master's hours, all students must take Diagnostic Entrance Examinations, one in music theory and another in music history and literature. Those who lack proficiency in one or both of these areas must enroll and pass (''C'' or better) the appropriate course (i.e., MUS 620: Music Theory Survey and MUS 630: Music History Survey). Hours gained in these courses cannot be counted toward a degree.

Diagnostic Entrance Examinations are administered on campus each Monday preceding the first day of classes in Fall, Spring, and Summer.

9:00 a.m. - Theory

10:30 a.m. - Music History and Literature

These examinations are also administered through the mail. To make the testing process feasible, a proctor, preferably a teacher in a nearby college or university, may administer the examination. Submit the name and address of the proctor to the Coordinator of Graduate Studies.

Students with deficiencies may be required to take additional course work beyond the minimum required in the degree program.

QUALIFYING EXAMINATIONS

All students must pass a written doctoral qualifying examination. This examination must be taken during the first semester of full-time enrollment or before completing twelve (12) semester hours of work. It is designed to judge the student's fitness to pursue doctoral work and to guide the Advisory Committee in planning the student's program. The qualifying examination may be retaken once.

These examinations are offered each semester approximately three (3) weeks before the end of the term. The exact dates are determined by the Graduate Coordinator and are publicized early in the term. Examinations in the summer semester are scheduled on three successive Saturdays following the July 4th Holiday.

The examination consists of three parts: (1) knowledge of the student's area of specialization (i.e., Music Education, Piano, Voice, etc.); (2) Music History; and (3) Music Theory. (Suggestions for study are available in the Graduate Coordinator's office.) Each part is graded by appropriate faculty, and the results are reported to the Graduate Coordinator. Students are notified of the results in writing by the end of the semester. All sections of the examination judged unsatisfactory must be repeated simultaneously within one year of the first Qualifying Examination.

If after the second attempt any section of an examination is judged unsatisfactory, all further work on the doctorate degree is suspended.

COMPREHENSIVE EXAMINATIONS

At the completion of all course work and examinations, the doctoral student is required to take a written Comprehensive Examination in the student's area of specialization, Music Theory, and Music History. The test will be prepared and graded by members of the graduate faculty in each discipline.

A student who does unsatisfactory work on the Comprehensive Examination will be granted a second examination; the test must be repeated within one year of the first Comprehensive Examination, but students will be required to repeat only those sections of the examination judged unsatisfactory.

The Comprehensive Examination can be retaken once; all parts failed must be repeated simultaneously. If the second examination is judged unsatisfactory in part or in its entirety, the student cannot earn a doctoral degree in Music or Music Education at The University of Southern Mississippi.

This examination is offered each semester approximately three (3) weeks before the end of the term. The exact dates are determined by the Graduate Coordinator and are publicized early in the term. Examinations in the summer semester are scheduled on three successive Saturdays following the July 4th Holiday. The Coordinator of Graduate Studies must receive the results of the Comprehensive Examination in time to notify the University Registrar and the Graduate Office (i.e., no later than the last day for presenting signed dissertations to the Graduate Office).

ORAL EXAMINATIONS

After the dissertation has been accepted and after all required course work has been completed, but at least four weeks before the candidate is scheduled to receive the degree, a final oral examination on the dissertation and related fields will be conducted by the student's advisory committee and any other faculty members designated by the Graduate Dean. The examination will be open to any member of the graduate faculty.

SPECIAL PROBLEMS COURSES

Special Problems courses must be approved by the Music Graduate Committee. Petitions requesting permission to enroll are available in the Office of the Graduate Coordinator (Performing Arts Center 209). Petitions must be submitted to the Coordinator by noon of the second day of classes.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Early in the first term of full-time residence or before twelve (12) hours of graduate credit have been earned, the student, the student's major professor, and the Coordinator of Graduate Studies select those faculty who will serve as the student's Advisory Committee. The Advisory Committee must be appointed before one takes the Qualifying Examination.

The major professor and the student shall develop a planning sheet of course work based upon Qualifying Examination information together with course requirements. The Advisory Committee members will respond to the plan in full committee session (i.e., a full committee meeting scheduled by the Coordinator of Graduate Studies). In those cases where a student is required to take additional course work beyond the minimum required by the degree, the Advisory Committee will counsel the student and, along with the Coordinator of Graduate Studies, plan the program of studies.

If recitals are required by the student's degree plan, the Advisory Committee will approve the repertoire, will attend the recital,* and will grade the performance as Satisfactory (S) or Unsatisfactory (U). This grade, indicating the majority opinion of the Advisory Committee, must be recorded on the Graduate Examination Report and submitted to the Coordinator of Graduate Studies. Should a recital be judged Unsatisfactory, another recital, at a date determined by the

*Before scheduling a recital, the student must ascertain that all members of the Advisory Committee can attend. At least fourteen days before the recital, the student should issue a written invitation to each member of his or her committee.

Advisory Committee, must take place. Not until all required recitals have been performed and judged Satisfactory will grades received on Comprehensive Examinations be submitted to the University Registrar or to the Graduate Office.

DISSERTATION

- A. The dissertation topic must be approved by the student's major professor and Advisory Committee and must be an original and significant contribution to knowledge in the chosen field. The Human Subjects Protection Review Committee must also approve the topic.
- B. Once a topic has been approved, the student must enroll in MUS 791, MED 791, MUS 898, or MED 898 in each semester/term until the degree is completed.
- C. A separate bulletin outlining University requirements concerning the preparation of dissertations is available in the Graduate Office.
- D. Additionally, instructions specific to the development of an approved topic in Music or Music Education must be followed. These may be obtained from the Coordinator of Graduate Studies.

DOCUMENTS

The doctoral student must file a number of documents with the Graduate Office. Please see "Documents-Doctoral Degree Requirements," this Bulletin.

DEGREE PLANS

DOCTOR OF MUSICAL ARTS DEGREE PERFORMANCE AND PEDAGOGY (all areas except Composition)

Candidacy Audition*

All students must audition for the appropriate area faculty (generally, taped auditions are not acceptable.) This audition must be deemed Satisfactory before one can be accepted into the School of Music (i.e., before completing twelve (12) hours of graduate work). Early auditions are encouraged, and a high level of performance proficiency is expected.

*In lieu of a candidacy audition, with the approval of the School of Music Graduate Committee, students who will complete the Master of Music degree in Performance at USM may use their graduate recital. The appropriate faculty must attend the recital, and the printed program must state the total purpose of the concert, e.g., "This recital is given in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree Master of Music in Performance, and it also serves as an audition for acceptance into the Doctor of Musical Arts curriculum in the School of Music." The student must begin doctoral study within one year of this audition.

In all instances other than those in bold-face below, the audition must be at least thirty minutes in length and must include three works of contrasting style, preferably representing three different periods in music. (Repertory lists with representative works are available upon request. Write: Graduate Coordinator, School of Music, The University of Southern Mississippi, Box 5081, Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5081).

Brass Performance: For those majoring in brass performance, the candidacy audition must be a full recital for the USM brass faculty.

Percussion Performance: For those majoring in percussion performance, the applicant should demonstrate proficiency on timpani, on mallet keyboards, and should perform a multiple-percussion performance.

Piano Performance: For those majoring in piano performance, the audition must be a full recital, memorized, performed before the piano faculty; it must include works from at least three different periods in music (e.g., Baroque, Classical, Romantic, Impressionistic, or Contemporary). The faculty may select portions from the repertoire submitted.

Voice Performance: Voice performance majors must demonstrate, by audition, (1) advanced vocal technique; (2) good diction in Italian, French, German, and English; and (3) good vocal quality and musicianship. The repertoire must be memorized and include (1) an aria from opera or oratorio; (2) a seventeenth- or eighteenth-century Italian song or aria; (3) a German Lied; (4) a French Melodie; and (5) a song in English.

Special requirement, Voice Performance: The student's transcript(s) must show grades of C or better in at least one course in diction for singers and in two years of foreign language: German, French, or Italian (may include any combination of those languages). Students lacking these will be required to pass such courses in addition to the requirements for the degree. In lieu of course work, satisfactory performance on language exams, administered by the USM Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, is acceptable.

All D.M.A. Areas Except Composition

The D.M.A. student will be required to take MUS 702, 731, 732, 791, and 898. Students who will write a dissertation are advised to enroll in MED 825, Doctoral Seminar in Music Education. The remainder of the course work will be determined in light of the student's qualifying examination, entrance audition, his or her interests and/or professional goals, and the counsel of the major professor and graduate advisory committee. In planning this program, the following minimum distribution of graduate courses (including master's degree work) is required: Thirty (30) semester hours in performance music studio study and recitals, fifteen (15) semester hours in music history and literature, nine (9) semester hours in music theory, and the remainder of the program in approved electives which may include six (6) semester hours in a cognate field of study. Three recitals will be required in addition to the entrance audition. One must be a solo recital, one a lecture recital, and the third chosen from the following options: (a) performance of a concerto with orchestra, (b) performance of a major role in an opera, (c) performance of a major role in an oratorio, (d) a full-length recital of chamber music, or (e) a second solo recital. (Note: To use options "a" through "d," permission of the student's Advisory Committee must be received before the semester in which the event will occur.) As a general rule, not more than one doctoral recital may be presented by a candidate during any academic term, nor more than two during any nine-month period. Rare exceptions will be permitted, but under rigidly controlled procedures. See the Coordinator of Graduate Studies for details.

One language will be required in the degree. Others may be required by the major professor and Graduate Advisory Committee.

The D.M.A. dissertation, required for completion of the degree, consists of two parts. Part I must be written thesis given evidence of the candidate's ability to make a scholarly investigation of a limited scope. Part II must include all recital programs, concert programs, program notes, and lectures presented during the student's residency.

Composition Area

Acceptance of a prospective student into the D.M.A. program in the composition area assumes a previously earned master's degree in composition or the equivalent, provided the composition faculty is satisfied that the student is qualified to pursue the D.M.A. at The University of Southern Mississippi. A high level of proficiency in composition and extensive knowledge of literature are expected.

Students applying for entrance into the D.M.A. program in the composition area must submit a portfolio containing representative scores and/or recordings of their compositions prior to the first term of enrollment at The University of Southern Mississippi. Additionally, the student will be required to take qualifying examinations prior to or during the first term of enrollment.

The D.M.A. student will be required to take MUS 702, 731, 732, and 898. The remainder of the program will be determined in the light of the student's portfolio evaluation, his or her qualifying examination, his or her interests and/or professional goals, and the counsel of the major professor and graduate advisory committee. In planning this program, the following minimum distribution of graduate courses (including master's degree work) is required: Thirty-nine (39) semester hours in composition and music theory, fifteen (15) semester hours in music history and literature, six (6) semester hours in a related field of study, and the remainder of the program in approved electives. The student will write compositions totaling at least two (2) hours performing time. Up to thirty (30) minutes previously written compositions may be accepted as part of these two hours. Compositions will be for orchestra, band, chorus, ensembles, and soloists demonstrating competence in writing for all orchestral and band instruments as well as for the solo voice. The music should encompass levels of difficulty from junior high school to professional standards. The composer will write commentaries for each work, including program notes and rehearsal suggestions. All works, including parts, must be in duplicative format.

One recital of the composer's works will be given, with the composer commenting on each composition.

One language will be required, chosen from French, German, or Italian.

The D.M.A. dissertation, required for completion of the degree, will consist of the commentaries, program notes, and a full score of a work composed during the student's doctoral study.

Doctor of Music Education Degree

Doctor of Philosophy in Music Education Degree

General requirements for the Doctor of Philosophy and Doctor of Music Education (the Doctor of Music Education general requirements are the same as the Doctor of Education degree) are found in another section of this Bulletin. The College of The Arts further stipulates the following requirements.

Admission: See "Admission Requirements" and "Acceptance," a, b, e, f, g, and h.

Research Tools: Candidates for the Doctor of Philosophy degree in Music Education must comply with the language requirements as specified for Doctor of Philosophy candidates in this Bulletin. A candidate for the Doctor of Music Education degree is required to demonstrate proficiency in statistics or computer science; at the discretion of the student's Graduate Advisory Committee, the candidate may be required to demonstrate a reading knowledge of one modern foreign language.

Degree Requirements

The following courses are required: REF 601 (or equivalent), MUS 702 (or equivalent), MED 750, 825, 826, and 898. The remaining course work will be determined by the candidate's Qualifying Examination, his or her interests, and the counsel of the major professor and Graduate Advisory Committee. In planning this program, the following minimum distribution of graduate courses (including master's degree work) is required: Thirty (30) semester hours in music education, nine (9) semester hours in music history and literature, nine (9) semester hours in music theory, nine (9) semester hours in professional education, three (3) semesters in studio performance study, and the remainder of the program in approved electives. Although this Bulletin states that eighty-four (84) semester hours are required for doctoral degrees, it should be clearly understood that some candidates will be unable to receive a degree on the basis of this minimum. The distinction implied by the degree and the traditions related to it require comprehensive knowledge and demonstration of a high degree of proficiency in the major field and related areas of study as well as the ability to conduct advanced research.

DEPARTMENT OF ART

Jerry Walden, Chair Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5033 (601) 266-4972

The Department of Art offers a program leading to the Master of Art Education degree. Regular admission to the program requires a minimum undergraduate grade-point average of 3.0 in the applicant's major field of study as well as a minimum combined score of 900 on the Graduate Record Examinations (verbal and quantitative sections). Other requirements unique to the degree program are described below. The University of Southern Mississippi Department of Art is a fully accredited member of the National Association of Schools of Art and Design.

Master of Art Education Degree

Undergraduate prerequisites for the Master of Art Education degree in the Department of Art are: (1) completion of a bachelor's degree in art education at The University of Southern Mississippi or an equivalent program, or (2) completion of any degree in the visual arts, or (3) satisfaction of Mississippi Class A teacher certification requirements in art.

Each student must demonstrate a studio proficiency appropriate to previous study by presenting a portfolio for review by the faculty and chairman of the Department of Art. The review will determine recommendations for meeting the nine (9) semester hour block in art education and studio areas. The portfolio should be submitted no later than three weeks prior to the initial registration so that proper guidance can be given in advising. Portfolios submitted later will be reviewed after the student has been enrolled in ART 600. Deficiencies which are identified may be removed by passing the non-degree credit course ARE 600 and/or ART 600 with a grade no lower than B and/or taking course work for degree credit as prescribed by the student's major professor and graduate advisory committee.

Requirements for a Master of Art Education Degree are as follows:

Nine (9) hours of the remaining course work must be selected in art and art education courses (art history, drawing, painting, ceramics, crafts or ARE 698-Thesis). A student choosing to pursue a non-thesis program will normally be required to take six (6) of the nine (9) hours in one discipline. The course work in lieu of the thesis must be approved by the student's major professor and graduate advisory committee.

The required minimum total is thirty (30) semester hours.

DEPARTMENT OF THEATRE AND DANCE

George Crook, Interim Chair Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5052 (601) 266-4994

The University of Southern Mississippi Department of Theatre and Dance is an accredited member of the National Association of Schools of Theatre. Theatre requirements are in accordance with the published regulations of this Association.

The Department of Theatre and Dance offers a program leading to the Master of Fine Arts degree.

To be eligible for admission, a student must have completed a minimum of twenty-one (21) semester hours of undergraduate course work in theatre or theatre related areas. Those who do not meet the minimum entrance requirements may be admitted but will be expected to take undergraduate courses to cover deficiencies. It should be emphasized that admission to the Graduate School does not imply acceptance of the student as a candidate for a graduate degree. (See general admission requirements and procedures as set forth in this Bulletin.)

Upon being admitted into a graduate program, the student will be assisted by the department graduate coordinator in selecting an appropriate graduate advisory committee composed of three faculty members, one of whom will serve as major professor.

Before the end of the first week of classes, an entrance interview and audition/ portfolio review is required of all students entering a master's program.

Master of Fine Arts Degree in Theatre

The objective of the Master of Fine Arts curriculum is to develop the educated performer by offering sound theory and intensive practical training simultaneously. Students in the Master of Fine Arts programs will elect a plan of study with specialization(s) in one or two of the following areas: acting, directing, scenic and lighting design, costume design, and technical production.

Regular admission to a Master of Fine Arts program requires: (1) submission of the combined scores (850) (QV) received on the Graduate Record Examinations; (2) a grade point average of at least 3.0 in the undergraduate major area; and (3) acceptable performance auditions or portfolio evaluations. Directing and acting students will be required to demonstrate their proficiency in "Showcase" performance during the first semester in residence. Design emphasis students must present a portfolio for review by the faculty prior to the initial registration. If no portfolio is available, a student may be admitted on a conditional basis until an acceptable minimum proficiency is determined.

Proficiency reviews will be required of all M.F.A. candidates at the conclusion of their second semester in residence.

The Master of Fine Arts program requires six semesters of full-time graduate study and the completion of a minimum approved program of sixty (60) hours. It is recommended that the M.F.A. student fulfill at least one of the required semesters by enrollment in the Repertory Theatre program. The candidate will satisfactorily complete a creative project in his major area of emphasis and defend it orally before the Theatre Arts faculty.

PURPOSE

One of the objectives of the College of Business Administration is to provide quality education at the master's degree level for managers, as well as for those who intend to pursue managerial careers. To achieve this objective the College has recruited qualified graduate faculty and limits its students to those who demonstrate good potential for doing graduate work.

DEPARTMENTS AND GRADUATE DEGREE PROGRAMS

Within the College of Business Administration the following graduate degree programs are offered: a Master of Business Administration and a Master of Professional Accountancy. These programs offered on the Hattiesburg Campus are accredited by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business. Inquiries may be addressed to Assistant to the Dean, Academic Programs, College of Business Administration, Southern Station, Box 5096, Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5096.

On the Hattiesburg Campus a number of graduate fellowships are available. Students with good undergraduate records are encouraged to apply at the time they apply for admission to the Graduate School. To be considered, the student must be officially admitted to the graduate program and must normally have a 3.0 average on the last two years of undergraduate work and an acceptable score on the Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT).

ADMISSION STANDARDS

Regular admission is normally granted to applicants who graduated from colleges and universities approved by a recognized accrediting agency. Successful applicants must normally have a total of at least (a) 1,050 points based on the formula: 200 times the grade point average of the last two years of undergraduate study (4.0 scale), plus the GMAT score or (b) 1,000 points based on the formula: 200 times the overall undergraduate grade point average plus the GMAT score. In either (a) or (b) above the GMAT score must normally be greater than 430 points. Either low grades on important subjects or a low test score may prevent admission even if the standard is met. Applicants should have an overall undergraduate GPA of at least 2.50.

Exceptions may be granted to students whose GMAT and GPA do not meet the above criteria but are considered good prospects for graduate study. Such students must make grades of B or better on each of the first three graduate courses taken to qualify for regular admission. Only a limited number of students are admitted on this basis.

A student may not enroll in any courses reserved exclusively for graduate students in the College unless official admission to one of the programs has been attained prior to registration. Also, students seeking degrees from other colleges and schools may not enroll in graduate level business courses unless they are officially admitted to a specific USM graduate program.

Students transferring from other graduate schools, including USM regional campuses, must meet the admission requirements outlined above. At the time of admission up to six (6) semester hours of appropriate transfer credit for courses taken in these other graduate programs may be accepted. A grade of B or above is required for transfer credit. Once admitted to the program, students will be expected to complete all of their degree requirements on the Hattiesburg campus.

Admission forms and GMAT applications are available in the Office of the Assistant to the Dean, Academic Programs.

DEGREE PROGRAMS IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Master of Business Administration

The Master of Business Administration program is primarily designed to prepare the student for a position of responsibility in business or industry. However, it also is used as preparatory graduate work for the doctoral degree or for teaching in junior colleges where a teaching certificate is not required. The program is broad in nature and aimed at developing competence in overall management from the generalist's perspective, which is firmly grounded in the basic business disciplines.

Individuals with technical or other specialized degrees frequently discover that career advancement requires managerial abilities. The M.B.A. program provides a year of foundational courses in the functional areas of business and the basic tools of analysis and decision making. This preparation is followed by a second year of courses aimed at expanding the student's knowledge and abilities with a coordinated and integrated curriculum focused on analysis and application of this knowledge to business problems and decision making. This two-year option is designed for students with little or no previous course work in business administration.

Students who graduated from an undergraduate business program may complete their M.B.A. through a one-year option, provided they have retained proficiency in such areas as mathematics, statistics, and the use of computers. If the course work was done several years ago or if there is weakness in one or more of the functional areas, any deficiency must be removed before beginning the second-year graduate courses.

Students entering the one-year option should have completed the following course work in their undergraduate program: Principles of Accounting (6 hours), Principles of Economics (6 hours), Statistics (6 hours), Principles of Management (3 hours), Principles of Marketing (3 hours), Business Finance (3 hours), Legal Environment of Business (3 hours), and Management Information Systems (3 hours). A grade of C or better is normally required in all foundational courses.

All applicants must have completed mathematics through applied calculus and be computer literate, including the ability to make use of word processing, spread sheet, and data base management software packages.

The first year of the two-year program includes the following courses:

The two Emphasis courses may be selected from those offered in Economics, Finance, Management, or Marketing. Also, students in the one- and two-year programs must earn one and two hours respectively of University Honors Forum credit.

Students entering the two-year option will be admitted in the FALL semester ONLY, and may complete the program in 21 months on a full-time basis. Students entering the one-year option will be admitted in the SUMMER or FALL semester ONLY, completing the program in one calendar year on a full-time basis. Part-time students will be admitted on the same semester schedule, completing the program in two or four years, depending on which option is needed.

Degree Requirements

A student completing the two-year option must complete a minimum of 61.5 semester hours of prescribed work with a B average for all graduate courses. A student completing the one-year option must complete a minimum of 34.5 semester hours of prescribed work with a B average for all graduate courses. All general requirements of the Graduate School must be met, the appropriate curriculum requirements completed, and an oral or written examination passed unless excused for exceptional performance.

Requirements for Admission to Graduate Programs

Admission to the Graduate School for study in the College of Education and Psychology requires a specific grade point average and an appropriate GRE score. (See General Admission Requirements.) Any individual who does not meet the general admission requirements may request additional consideration of his or her application by appealing to the appropriate department chair. A student may be admitted to a graduate program if he or she receives the approval of the department chair, the Dean of the College of Education and Psychology, and the Dean of the Graduate School.

Anyone holding a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution may be admitted as a non-degree graduate student. A non-degree graduate student is not considered to be in a graduate program leading to a degree. If the student demonstrates proficiency in graduate work, he or she may make application for a graduate degree program and, if approved, the student may use up to nine (9) semester hours of work taken as a non-degree graduate student in the degree program.

Those applicants who wish to study for a master's degree in any area of professional public school work should study for the Master of Education degree, and therefore, must first hold or qualify to hold a Class A teaching certificate based on a baccalaureate degree in the area in which they wish to concentrate. A Master of Education degree applicant who does not yet qualify for an A certificate may be admitted to the Graduate School, but must meet the requirements of the State of Mississippi for an A certificate in teaching before the degree will be awarded. However, upon the recommendation of the departmental chair, the Dean of the College of Education and Psychology may waive the requirements of satisfying certification requirements for those students currently employed or preparing for employment in junior or senior colleges, non-public institutions, or positions not requiring certification. In the event that certification requirements are waived, it is incumbent upon the student to recognize this limitation upon the scope of the areas within which he or she might seek employment in the future.

In the College of Education and Psychology, the minimum requirement for a master's degree is thirty (30) semester hours; the specialist's degree requires a minimum additional thirty-three (33) semester hours; and the doctoral degree requires a minimum of eighty-four (84) semester hours beyond the bachelor's degree.

Detailed curriculum guides are available upon request. Students enrolling in the research practicum must have GRE (Verbal + Quan) scores of at least 1000 and permission of the faculty. Students must be admitted to a degree program prior to enrolling in core courses.

SPECIALIST'S DEGREE

The Specialist's degree in Education with an emphasis in Counseling and Guidance is offered in the College of Education and Psychology. A description of the basic program is provided elsewhere. The curriculum for the Counseling and Guidance emphasis will meet Mississippi requirements for AAA certification as a Guidance Counselor. Program plans are developed on an individual basis by the student and a departmental adviser.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

The department offers the Ph.D. degree in Counseling Psychology. A scientist-practitioner model provides the basic orientation for program planning. Such a model emphasizes the interrelatedness of psychological theory, research, and practice.

Minimum course requirements for the doctorate are ninety (90) semester hours not including research tools, dissertation, and internship. Forty-two (42) semester hours are included in the professional core and a minimum of thirty (30) semester hours is required in psychological foundations. Electives may be utilized to develop emphasis areas.

Admissions

The department admits an average of eight new students each year (based on a ratio of approximately one student for each full-time equivalent faculty member). Students may be admitted to a predesignated doctoral class opening upon completion of a bachelor's degree or upon completion of a master's degree. Applications are processed once a year after February 1 for fall admission. In reviewing applications, the committee will consider the following:

(a) Aptitude scores on the Graduate Record Examinations

(b) Previous grade point average

(c) Recommendations of professors and professional employers/supervisors

(d) Previous work experience

(e) Ratings from on-campus interview

(f) Research and publications

Minimum Admission Requirements

Regular: A minimum grade point average of 3.50 on previous graduate work and a combined score of 1000 on the aptitude section of the Graduate Record Examinations.

Conditional: Where granted, conditional admissions will be reserved for applicants from underrepresented populations who do not meet all of the regular admission requirements but who present evidence of outstanding potential for doctoral study. Such applicants should have a grade point average of at least 3.50 on previous graduate work and a GRE score no lower than 900 or a grade point average between 3.25 and 3.50 and a GRE score of at least 1000. Students applying for doctoral study from a bachelor's degree must have an undergraduate grade point average of 3.25 or higher and a GRE score of at least 1100. See listing in current volume of Graduate Study in Psychology for description of student characteristics.

Oualifying Examinations

The examinations usually will be taken during the second semester of the third year of graduate study (or first year of post-master's study).

Comprehensive Examinations

Comprehensive examinations will be scheduled by individual appointment during or after the last semester in which the student is enrolled in core courses listed on the approved course of study and will consist of written and/or oral questions.

Residency

Completion of the minimum residency requires full-time on-campus study for two consecutive semesters. Due to the intensive nature of the training involved in the program, it is highly recommended that students not apply until they can remain in residency for at least two-three years. During the residency, students are expected:

1. To carry a minimum course load of twelve (12) hours per semester for at least the first year.

2. To participate in a variety of credit and non-credit departmental activities including three semesters of CPY 810, laboratory and practicum experiences, individual case work, field trips and other related professional activities.

3. To be relieved of job responsibilities with off-campus employers.

One year of pre-doctoral internship, (1900-2000 hours) experience is required. Doctoral internships are off-campus, involve full-time responsibilities, and are usually paid.

Due to the professional nature of the counseling psychology program, students' performance in courses, practica, and graduate assistantships is evaluated on a continuing basis. Progression from one major transition point (i.e., completion of a master's degree, qualifying examinations, permission to apply to internships, comprehensive examinations, etc.) to the next requires an endorsement by a majority of the core faculty.

Students seeking graduate degrees in Curriculum and Instruction should be aware that certification at advanced levels in Mississippi is contingent on satisfaction of all lower level certification requirements. Students entering the Curriculum and Instruction Master's program, who desire AA level Mississippi certification in a given area must meet all A level requirements for that area. Individuals who are matriculating at USM from out of state should become aware of the certification requirements of those states where they wish to be certified and should work with an adviser to see that those requirements are met. Certification and degree requirements are separate procedures. A degree from USM in a given curricular area does not automatically insure Mississippi certification in that area or at that level.

The Department of Curriculum and Instruction strongly recommends that a student gain one year of teaching experience before completing the master's degree program. No student will be eligible to receive a specialist's degree until he or she has completed at least two years of teaching experience. Three years of teaching experience is a requisite for a doctor's degree.

MASTER'S PROGRAMS

The Department of Curriculum and Instruction offers a Master of Education degree with a major in educational curriculum and instruction with emphasis areas in early childhood education, elementary education, reading, post-secondary reading, and secondary education. The Master of Science degree is offered with a major in educational curriculum and instruction with emphasis areas in reading and in secondary education.

The program of study at the master's degree level is designed to increase the professional competency of the classroom teacher and to provide the course work necessary to meet standards of teaching certification at this advanced level.

The master's degree program requires admission to a particular program, appointment of a graduate adviser, completion and submission of four copies of the application form for a master's degree at least one semester in advance of the date of graduation, successful completion of the comprehensive examination, and completion of all course work requirements.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

To be considered for regular admission to a master's degree program, an applicant must have (a) a grade point average of at least 2.75 (figured on a scale where A equals 4.0) for the last two years of undergraduate study; (b) a total score of at least 850 on the Aptitude Test (verbal plus quantitative) of the Graduate Record Examinations, or a total score of at least 1125 on the common and area examinations of the National Teacher Examinations (NTE), or a total score of at least 1965 for the three tests (Communication Skills, General Knowledge, and Professional Knowledge) of the Core Battery of the NTE, or a score of at least 39 on the Miller Analogies Test; and (c) the approval of the chair of the department, the Dean of the College, and the Dean of the Graduate School.

An applicant who fails to meet the criteria for regular admission may be considered for conditional admission if he or she (a) meets one of the standardized test score requirements for regular admission and has a grade point average of at least 2.50 for the last two years of undergraduate study or, when the standardized test score is below that required for regular admission, has a grade point average of 2.75 or higher for the last two years of undergraduate study and shows promise of successfully completing degree requirements; and (b) has the approval of the chair of the department, the Dean of the College, and the Dean of the Graduate School.

This program is designed to prepare teachers for the improvement of the reading-learning performance of older students and adults in community/junior colleges, college; and adult basic education programs by focusing on their special interests, needs, and motivations for seeking reading improvement. The completion of this program does not qualify the individual for Class AA certification in reading in Mississippi.

SPECIALIST'S PROGRAMS

The Department of Curriculum and Instruction offers the Specialist in Education degree with a major in Education. The student has the option of taking an emphasis in early childhood education, elementary education, secondary education, or reading.

The student pursuing a specialist's degree with emphasis in secondary education may choose a specialization from a number of teaching (subject) areas.

The student pursuing a specialist's degree with emphasis in reading may choose one of three specialization areas: curriculum and supervision in reading, clinical reading, and college reading/study skills.

Entrance into a particular specialist's degree program presupposes that the student has completed, or is willing to complete, the course work required for that program at the master's degree level.

All specialist's degree programs require a minimum of thirty-four (34) graduate semester hours beyond the master's degree.

The specialist's degree program requires admission to a particular program; submission of an approved program of studies; completion of all required course work, to include the completion of one full-time semester/term of residence taking all nine (9) semester hours on either the Hattiesburg Campus or the Gulf Park Campus, successful completion of the specialist's oral examination, and completion and defense of an approved thesis or field problem.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

To be considered for regular admission to a specialist's program, an applicant must have (a) a grade point average of at least 3.25 (figured on scale where A equals 4.0) on previous graduate work; (b) a total score of at least 900 on the Aptitude Test (verbal plus quantitative) of the Graduate Record Examinations, or a total score of at least 1175 on the common and area examinations for the National Teacher Examinations (NTE), or a total score or at least 1975 for the three tests (Communication Skills, General Knowledge, and Professional Knowledge) of the Core Battery of the NTE, or a score of at least 44 on the Miller Analogies Test; and (c) the approval of the chair of the department, the Dean of the College, and the Dean of the Graduate School.

An applicant who fails to meet the criteria for regular admission may be considered for conditional admission if he or she (a) meets one of the standardized test score requirements for regular admission and has a grade point average of at least 3.0 on previous graduate work or, when the standardized test score is below that required for regular admission, has a grade point average of 3.25 or higher on previous graduate work and shows promise of successfully completing degree requirements; and (b) has the approval of the department's Graduate Admissions Committee, the chair of the department, the Dean of the College, and the Dean of the Graduate School.

DOCTORAL PROGRAMS

The Department of Curriculum and Instruction offers Doctor of Education and Doctor of Philosophy degrees with a major in education and an emphasis in elementary education, secondary education, and business education. If a student desires to receive a Doctor of Philosophy degree, he or she should follow one of the doctoral programs outlined in this section and, in addition, gain proficiency in a foreign language.

The doctoral program with an emphasis in elementary education provides for specialization in both early childhood education and in reading. A student choosing an emphasis in elementary education, with or without a specialization in either early childhood education or in reading, must complete the requisite course work in that area prior to beginning doctoral study.

The doctoral program with an emphasis in secondary education provides for specialization in various teaching (subject) areas as well as in reading. A student specializing in a particular area must complete the requisite course work in that area prior to beginning doctoral study.

The doctoral program with an emphasis in business education is offered through the Department of Curriculum and Instruction with program advisement provided by the Department of Business and Industrial Education. A student choosing this emphasis must complete the requisite course work in business education prior to beginning doctoral study.

All doctoral programs consist of a minimum of seventy-five (75) graduate semester hours beyond the master's degree. A minimum of thirty-seven (37) of these hours must be taken on the Hattiesburg campus. More than seventy-five (75) hours may be required in order to satisfy deficiencies which may exist in the student's background and preparation.

Students should consult the departmental guidelines and the Admission Requirements and Procedures section and the General Academic Requirements section of the Graduate Bulletin.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

To be considered for regular admission to a doctoral program, an applicant must have (a) a grade point average of at least 3.5 (figured on a scale where A equals 4.0) on previous graduate work; (b) a total of at least 1000 on the Aptitude Test (verbal plus quantitative) of the Graduate Record Examinations (GRE); and (c) the approval of the department's Graduate Admissions Committee, the chair of the department, the Dean of the College, and the Dean of Graduate School.

An applicant who fails to meet the criteria for regular admission may be considered for conditional admission if he or she (a) meets the GRE score requirement for regular admission and has a grade point average of at least 3.25 on previous graduate work or has a GRE score of at least 900 and a grade point average of at least 3.5 on previous graduate work; and (b) has the approval of the department's Graduate Admissions Committee, the chair of the department, the Dean of the College, and the Dean of the Graduate School.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP AND RESEARCH

Edgar Bedenbaugh, Chair Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5027 (601) 266-4579

The programs in Educational Administration and Supervision encompass the full range of administrative positions and lead to the master's degree, the specialist's degree, and the doctorate in education with an emphasis in educational administration. Programs at the master's degree level provide entry level preparation in the elementary school principalship, the junior high school principalship, the high school principalship, and supervision of instruction. Programs at the specialist's and doctoral levels provide preparation for the superintendency, central administrative staff positions, and leadership roles in other institutional settings. In addition, the program at the doctoral level provides preparation for college teachers in educational administration and persons desiring to prepare for administration in higher education.

The Research and Foundations components of the Department of Educational Leadership and Research provide supportive services in teacher education. At the graduate level, these services are provided in the areas of Educational Foundations, Educational Media and Technology, and Educational Research. Also offered are the master's degree, specialist's degree, and doctoral minor emphasizing Educational Research.

The Adult Education component of the Department of Educational Leadership and Research offers programs of study which lead to four degrees in adult education: Master of Education (M.Ed.), Specialist in Education (Ed.S.), Doctor of Education (Ed.D.), and Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) Through the completion of courses and/or degrees in those programs, students may enhance their understanding of adults as learners as well as the many means by which educational services are developed and delivered to adults.

Academic preparation in adult education is dependent not only upon knowledge of adult education theory and practice but also upon knowledge from related areas of study, such as psychology, sociology, administration, and management. Consequently, the courses and degree programs often follow an interdisciplinary approach in preparing persons for roles of professional service to adults. Adult education majors are encouraged to enroll in professionally relevant courses in cognate fields. Students from other departments frequently find adult education courses to be valuable as electives or academic minors.

The following course patterns for the different levels set forth only the minimum core requirements, and the electives selected to suit individual needs and objectives must be chosen with the advice and approval of the student's major professor. Therefore, it is mandatory that the student consult early in his or her program, and frequently thereafter, with his or her major professor concerning the selection of courses and sequence in which these courses will be taken.

The following departmental policies are supplementary to the rules and regulations of the University and the Graduate School as set forth elsewhere in this Bulletin.

DOCTORAL DEGREES

Doctor of Education and Doctor of Philosophy with Emphasis in Educational Administration

Admission

To be considered for regular admission to the doctoral degree program, the applicant must: (a) have a minimum grade-point average of 3.5 on previous graduate work; (b) present a combined minimum score of 1000 on the Graduate Record Examinations; and (c) have the approval of the Program Admissions Committee, department chair, Dean of the College, and Dean of the Graduate School.

Students who fail to meet the criteria for regular admission may be considered for conditional admission if: (a) the Graduate Record Examinations score meets or exceeds the score required for regular admission but the grade point average is no lower than 3.25; or (b) the grade point average is higher than 3.5 and the Program Admissions Committee, department chair, Dean of the College and Dean of the Graduate School are satisfied that the applicant shows promise of successfully completing graduate degree requirements.

Oualifying Entrance Examination

2. May not be taken prior to the receipt of satisfactory GRE scores.

- 3. Regularly admitted doctoral students who fail the examination may repeat it upon the completion of nine (9) semester hours of credit after the semester in which the examination
- 4. The results of a master's degree comprehensive examination may not be substituted for this examination.

Planning Sheet

Planning sheets are completed after the qualifying examination has been passed and the committee appointed, but before the student has completed twenty-seven (27) semester hours.

Admission to Candidacy

Admission to candidacy should be submitted one semester prior to graduation and will be approved by the student's graduate committee upon:

1. Completion of an approved program of studies.

- 2. Satisfaction of the language and/or statistics requirement.
- 3. Completion of an approved dissertation prospectus.
- 4. Completion of the comprehensive examination.

5. Completion of the residency requirement.

Application for Graduation Graduation is based upon:

1. Meeting the departmental and Graduate School deadlines for receiving completed dissertation.

2. Successful defense of the completed dissertation.

PROGRAMS

At the doctoral level, programs are provided in: (1) General School Administration and (2) Educational Administration with an emphasis in Higher Education. The general administration program provides preparation for the superintendent, other central office positions, and college teachers, while the program emphasizing higher education is designed to prepare administrators of higher education.

The doctoral program requires a minimum of eighty-four (84) semester hours beyond the bachelor's degree exclusive of the dissertation and proficiency in statistics. A minimum of thirty-two (32) semester hours must be taken on the Hattiesburg Campus excluding REF 761, REF 762, and EDA 898. The student's doctoral committee, appointed by the Graduate Dean, will approve the selection of required courses and electives and, in order to secure breadth and depth in the student's preparation program, may require more than the minimum number of hours of graduate credit. Nine (9) hours of cognate area credit is normally required. The department defines cognate areas as those courses which broaden and complement the student's program. Cognates as well as other courses will be chosen with the approval of the student's major professor and committee. A strength of the doctoral program is its flexibility. A program of studies is formulated after the successful completion of the Qualifying Examination and is based upon the student's performance on this examination, previous educational background, and professional objectives.

Each doctoral student will be required to participate in a variety of laboratory and field experiences, many of which may not be connected with specific courses.

PROGRAMS IN EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH

Master's Program in Research and Evaluation

The Master of Science (M.S.) degree program in Research and Evaluation is designed to provide:

1. salable skills in the areas of measurement, research, computer analysis, and evaluation for those persons working in the behavioral sciences;

2. a basis for certifying evaluators of educational and social programs;

3. skills for obtaining funding;

 skills for conducting and reporting both cooperative and independent research and/or evaluative endeavors;

for the establishment of a fundamental core of knowledge in the areas of measurement, research, and evaluation that would assist individuals in successfully completing more advanced training in these areas.

The master's program in Research and Evaluation does not require undergraduate coursework prerequisites. Students having an interest in measurement, quantification, evaluation, and accountability are welcome to apply for this program. Opportunities will be made available to apply the skills learned in meeting current problems in the social and behavioral sciences.

PROGRAMS IN ADULT EDUCATION

Adult Education programs, by nature interdisciplinary and flexible, offer personnel from diverse agencies opportunities for upgrading and building on professional experience. Such agencies include vocational-technical centers, the armed forces, health services, criminal justice and law enforcement programs, public school systems, junior and senior colleges, human service agencies, the Cooperative Extension Service, business and industrial organizations, and others. AA and AAA certification requirements as set by the Mississippi Department of Education may be met through these programs.

Admission to degree programs will be conducted in accordance with College and University policies (please refer to the ''Admissions Requirements and Procedures'' section of the USM Bulletin: Graduate Programs). In general, these procedures include the submission of application and credentials to the Director of Graduate Admissions. Additionally, all degree applicants should send the program coordinator (a) a letter explaining the applicant's interest in and reasons for pursuing the degree and (b) a resume of academic and job-related experiences. The Admissions Review Committee will review all applications and recommend the appropriate actions.

Admitted students will be assigned a temporary adviser until the student, with the concurrence of the program coordinator, selects a permanent adult education adviser. Doctoral students will also select a doctoral advisory committee composed of four additional faculty members, at least one of whom must be a member of the Adult Education faculty. Then, in accordance with departmental policy, students, in collaboration with their appointed advisers, will design programs of study which reflect their long term goals and interests. Basic admissions eligibility and graduation criteria are discussed in the sections which follow.

DOCTOR OF EDUCATION AND DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Doctor of Education and Doctor of Philosophy with Emphasis in Adult Education

Admission

To be considered for regular admission to the doctoral degree program, the applicant must: (a) have a minimum grade-point average of 3.5 on previous graduate work; (b) present a combined minimum score of 1000 on the Graduate Record Examinations; and (c) have the approval of the Program Admissions Committee, department chair, Dean of the College, and Dean of the Graduate School.

Full admission to the program is not complete until the qualifying examination has been passed.

Curriculum Requirements

Doctoral programs of study should be designed to provide competency in five areas: (1) the general field of adult education in the contemporary world; (2) psychology of adult learning; (3) social setting for adult learning; (4) foundations of education; and (5) specific abilities required for the student's particular area of professional interests, including both major areas of study and cognate fields. As early in the program as possible, doctoral students should select an area of emphasis for dissertation research. Programs of study (including all course decisions, research topics, and foreign language selections) must be approved by each student's advisory committee.

Doctoral students may pursue either the Ed.D. or the Ph.D. Both degrees require a minimum of 66 semester hours of course work (including dissertation) beyond the master's degree. Any hours taken to establish proficiencies in statistics, foreign languages, or areas of needed remediation are in excess of the 66 hour program minimum. Students pursuing the Ph.D. must establish proficiency in one foreign language approved by the Graduate School either through additional course work or through examination. All doctoral students must also complete a residency requirement, defined as two consecutive terms (which may include summer term) of minimum 12-hour course loads each. Students should not be employed full-time during residency. Physical residence on campus or in Hattiesburg is recommended but not required during residency.

Departmental Program of Studies (minimum 66 credit hours)

Doctoral students in adult education will complete a number of required courses and electives, but the program is designed to allow intensive pursuit of other areas in which adult educators may have interest or professional goals. Accordingly, there are several possible tracks students may pursue in addition to the requirements common for all students. The minimum required program includes (exclusive of statistical proficiency):

	Hours
ADE 540, 576, 601, 607, and 889 (ADE Core)	15
ADE Electives (9 hours of which must be classroom courses)	12
ADE 898 (dissertation)	12
REF 601 and REF 602
REF 604, 816, or 818	3
Other Electives	18

Within this program, students may pursue related areas in which to specialize, or tracks. Students are not required to be in a track; they are not prescriptive. They are, however, suggestive of possible plans for individual doctoral programs.

Administrative and Managerial: For those interested in public sector and private sector administration. In addition to ADE 602, recommended course areas would include Business, Management, Marketing, and Educational Administration.

Adult Basic Education: For those interested in teaching and administering adult basic and secondary education. Recommended courses include ADE 541, 542, 545, 602, and related courses in Reading and English composition.

Research: For those interested in conducting research at a professional level. Recommended course areas would include statistics, research design, grant writing, historical research methods, psychology, and computers.

Career Specialization: For those interested in using their elective courses to pursue specific career interests, such as nursing, criminal justice, fine arts, liberal arts, business, technical fields, library services, etc. Many people in this track might be teachers or trainers in post-secondary institutions, health-related organizations, or business organizations.

Gerontology: For those interested in the older adult. In addition to ADE 580 and 750, germane courses in psychology, sociology, social work, and/or counseling are recommended.

Dissertation (12 hours)

During the dissertation process, all students must complete twelve (12) hours of ADE 898, Dissertation. A minimum of three (3) credit hours of ADE 898 must be completed during the semester in which the dissertation is defended. The student submits three documents to a doctoral committee of five faculty: a pre-proposal, a proposal, and a completed dissertation. The last two are defended orally. A student applies for candidacy only after all degree requirements are completed except the oral defense of the dissertation.

Examinations

Qualifying examinations are scheduled for the third Friday after registration in each term. Doctoral students must take this written examination in the first term of their course work. After the qualifying exam is successfully completed, but still during the first term, the student will schedule a program planning meeting with the Adult Education faculty.

Comprehensive written examinations are prepared by doctoral committee members and are taken at or near the conclusion of course work. They are based on material from the overall program, including the books on the doctoral reading list. The committee may require an additional oral examination at its discretion. Comprehensive examinations are taken by arrangement on an individual basis.

Graduation

To complete either the Ed.D. or Ph.D. degree in Adult Education, students must maintain an acceptable grade point average, complete all course work, complete necessary proficiencies, pass qualifying and comprehensive examinations, and successfully complete and defend a dissertation.

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY

Charles D. Noblin, Chair Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5025 (601) 266-4604

The Department of Psychology offers the Ph.D. in four emphasis areas: clinical, general-experimental, school, and industrial/organizational psychology. The doctoral programs in clinical psychology and school psychology are fully accredited by the American Psychological Association (APA). Additionally, graduate training in school psychology is fully accredited by NCATE.

The department's applied doctoral emphasis areas (clinical, school, and industrial/ organizational psychology) are based on the scientist-practitioner training model in which the scientific and professional components are complementary and fully integrated at all stages of training. Doctoral training in the department's basic emphasis area (general-experimental psychology) follows a tutorial model in which each student is expected to work closely with a faculty member in an area of basic or applied research. All of USM's doctoral emphasis areas are designed to help ensure that students receive strong preparation in the research and theoretical literature of psychology as an experimental behavioral science. Further, as part of a publicly supported institution of higher education, departmental resources for training, research, and service functions are appropriately directed toward the identification and solution of behavioral problems within the public sector.

Students are admitted to the program based on an assessment of the likelihood that they will be able to attain the doctorate and make a contribution to the discipline. A master's degree in psychology is required of all students prior to embarking on the doctorate. Students who have not completed such a master's degree must do so at USM en route toward their doctorate. Applicants are judged on the basis of prior academic record, GRE scores, letters of recommendation, and evidence of creative scholarship. For regular admission, a student must (1) have a B average or better on the most recent 60 semester hours of academic work, (2) have a minimum score (quantitative + verbal) of 1,000 on the Aptitude Section of the Graduate Record Examination (GRE), and (3) have completed appropriate undergraduate foundation courses in psychology (e.g., statistics, experimental, and history and systems). A student may be invited to come to campus for a personal interview as part of the application process. Because the department receives applications from a larger number of qualified applicants than it can enroll, the credentials of entering students typically exceed these minimum standards. Prospective students should specify their intended emphasis area at time of application. Brochures describing each of these are available from the department. New students are normally admitted only in September. Applications received by March I will receive a full review. Applications received after that date will be considered if openings are still available. All students interested in applying for admission to the program are encouraged to contact the department prior to submitting their applications.

MASTER'S PROGRAMS

Master of Arts and Master of Science degree programs in the Department of Psychology are designed to prepare students for advanced graduate work, to teach in a junior/community or senior college, or to work in certain research or applied settings.

SPECIALIST'S PROGRAM

The specialist's degree is granted upon completion of a specifically planned program of study leading to competency in an area of Special Education. The purpose of this program is to train highly qualified personnel in the education of exceptional children and adults. The program consists of a minimum of thirty-three (33) semester hours in a planned sequence to include the major area, cognates, research, and practicum. A field study (SPE 794) or thesis (SPE 798) is required.

DOCTORAL PROGRAM

The doctoral program is comprehensive and places emphasis on teacher education, administration, research, and community services. (An internship is required in at least one of the above.) The candidate is expected to develop competency in each of the above areas; and the program will be based upon these as well as experience, background, and information gathered from written and oral qualifying examinations.

Required courses include:

Teacher Education	SPE 801, 803, 880
Administration	SPE 770, 772
Research	SPE 701, 791
Community Service	SPE 792, 802

In addition, each candidate will be expected to include a minimum of six (6) semester hours with a department outside of Special Education. Twelve (12) hours of academic credit are given for the dissertation (SPE 898).

Admission

All graduate degree candidates must conform to the entrance and academic requirements listed in this Bulletin as indicated by the School. In addition to the general requirements for admission to the Graduate School, to be admitted on a regular basis to the department, the candidate must earn a minimum score on the combined aptitude section of the GRE of 900 (quantitative plus verbal) for the master's and specialist's, and 1000 (quantitative plus verbal) for the doctoral degree. NTE common and area test scores totaling 1125 may be substituted for the GRE at the master's level; 1175 at the specialist's level. The new NTE Core Battery scores totaling 1965 may be used at the master's level; 44 at the specialist's level. A GPA of 3.0 is required. A minimum of two years of professionally appropriate experience is also required for admission to the specialist's and doctoral programs. Conditional admission may be considered for applicants whose grades or GREs are marginal, but other evidence indicates a high probability of success in graduate school. In such cases, grades in selected courses, previous experience, letters of recommendation, and personal interviews may be more heavily weighted.

The College of Health and Human Sciences currently offers graduate degree programs at the Master of Public Health, Master of Science, Master of Social Work, Specialist in Education, Doctor of Education and Doctor of Philosophy levels. Succinct descriptions of the degree programs within the School of Home Economics, the School of Human Performance and Recreation, the School of Nursing, the School of Social Work, and the Center for Community Health can be examined in the respective school sections. The graduate programs are oriented toward meeting career objectives in the professional and educational markets and promoting advanced study in areas of interest to the students.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

Admission to the Graduate School for study in the College of Health and Human Sciences requires a minimum grade point average of 2.75 at the undergraduate level and a GRE score of at least 850 for master's level and 1000 for doctoral study, plus additional criteria in certain schools (see general admission requirements of the individual schools). Exceptions to these requirements must be approved by the major adviser, director of the School, the Dean of the College, and the Graduate School Dean. Regardless of the degree level pursued, the student is responsible for following all graduate regulations.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

In the College of Health and Human Sciences, the minimum requirements for the Master's, Specialist, and Doctoral degrees are determined by the individual graduate programs within the five units. Programs offer both the thesis and non-thesis option, with the doctoral programs mandating a dissertation. All general Graduate School requirements outlined earlier in this Bulletin must be satisfied for students to progress successfully toward degrees. Regardless of degree level pursued, the student is responsible for following all graduate regulations. The student's major professor will assist, but the student is expected to know what is required and to take full responsibility. The Specialist degree requires a minimum of thirty-three (33) semester hours past the master's degree, a research problem and one semester of full-time residency. Comprehensive exams (both oral and written) may be required in lieu of, or in addition to, completion of the thesis or dissertation. Consult the specific degree programs for their requirements.

DED 780 Graduate Seminar

Erskine R. Smith, Director Anita M. Stamper, Assistant Director Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5035 (601) 266-4679

The School of Home Economics offers the Master of Science and Specialist in Education degrees. The Master of Science degree is offered for majors in Family Life Studies, Home Economics, and Institution Management. A Specialist in Education degree is available in Home Economics. These graduate programs are oriented toward meeting career objectives in the areas administered by the School and in meeting the interests and personal goals of the student. All programs have minors and/or emphasis areas that allow for specialization in specific areas along with courses emphasizing the foundations of knowledge inherent in the major.

Requirements for Admission

Admission to the Graduate School for study in the School of Home Economics requires a grade point average of 2.75 and a GRE score of at least 850 (see General Admission Requirements). Individuals not meeting these requirements may be admitted to a graduate program as conditional students if they have been approved by the Director of the School of Home Economics, the Dean of the College of Health and Human Sciences and the Dean of the Graduate School. Successful completion of one semester of curriculum (i.e., 3.0 GPA in 9 hours) will enable a student to achieve regular status. In addition to the Graduate School criteria for regular admission, graduate work in the major and minor fields of specialization must be preceded by course work sufficient to satisfy undergraduate requirements or enough related work to indicate the student's ability to do graduate work in the major and minor fields. Deficiencies in the student's background may be made up by taking and/or auditing recommended undergraduate courses.

Anyone holding a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution may be admitted as a non-degree student with the permission of the Director of the School. A non-degree student is not considered to be in a graduate program leading to a degree. If the student demonstrates proficiency in graduate work by obtaining at least a 3.0 average in at least 9 hours, he or she may make application for a graduate degree program and, if approved, the student may apply up to 9 semester hours of work taken as a non-degree graduate student to the degree program.

Requirements for Graduation

In the School of Home Economics, the minimum requirement for a master's degree is thirty (30) semester hours. Most majors offer thesis and non-thesis options; the requirements for these differ. Comprehensive exams (both oral and written) may be required in lieu of, or in addition to, completion of a thesis. The specialist's degree requires a minimum of thirty-three (33) semester hours past the master's degree, a research problem, and one semester of full-time residency. Consult the specific degree programs for their requirements.

MASTER'S PROGRAMS

FAMILY LIFE STUDIES

The major in Family Life Studies offers an opportunity for students to elect an emphasis in Family and Child Development, Interdisciplinary Gerontology, or Marriage and Family Therapy. The emphases in Family and Child Development and in Interdisciplinary Gerontology may be completed with either the thesis or the non-thesis option; the Marriage and Family Therapy emphasis is a two-year clinical program.

The emphasis in Family and Child Development is a one-year program of study with specializations in Family Relations and Child Development. Both specializations provide a foundation in family systems theory and family life cycle development theory. The Family Relations specialization focuses on the study of interactions among individuals, groups, and societal forces and their impact on personal relationships within the context of the family. The Family Relations specialization covers family enrichment, family life education, and prevention of dysfunction in the family. A one-semester practicum provides experiences in planning, implementing, and evaluating family life education programs in various settings such as juvenile courts, welfare programs, elderly day care programs, or family abuse shelters. The Family Relations specialization provides the student with the academic requirements that lead to certification as a Family Life Educator through the National Council on Family Relations (NCFR).

The specialization in Child Development focuses on the child from the prenatal period through early childhood. Supervised experiences at the USM Center for Child Development enable the student to observe and interact with infants, toddlers, and young children. Thus, students are able to integrate theory with an understanding of the developmental stages of the child and the family. Students also examine the impact of social organizations such as group child care and/or preschool on child and family life. Students electing this specialization are prepared for careers as teachers and administrators in child care centers, as child development specialists with the Cooperative Extension Service, as child life specialists with hospitals or clinics, or as teachers of Child Development in community colleges.

The emphasis in Interdisciplinary Gerontology is a one-year program that draws from family studies, nursing, community health, sociology, psychology, therapeutic recreation, social work and adult education. Students focus on the biological, psychological, and social aspects of aging and the provision of resources for the elderly and their families. The program of study includes administration of long-term care, recreation for the elderly, research and theory on aging, and counseling the elderly and their families. In a required one-semester practicum, students apply theoretical concepts during actual experience with both well and frail elderly. With the growing size of the elderly population in the United States, jobs opportunities in the area of Gerontology are expected to increase.

The Marriage and Family Therapy Program at The University of Southern Mississippi is a candidate for accreditation with the Commission on Accreditation for Marriage and Family Therapy Education of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy. The two-year program of study combines academic coursework with supervised clinical experiences involving couples, individuals, and families. The program is designed to focus on the integration of theory, research, and clinical practice throughout family life span development. The contextual and ecological aspects of systemic family treatment are emphasized. The program consists of (1) the conceptual study of family dynamics, family systems and subsystems, communication processes, and developmental family life cycle changes; (2) the application of diagnosis/assessment and treatment process utilizing the specific techniques associated with the major models of system change; (3) the study of human development in the context of the interface of interpersonal and intrapersonal issues, intimacy and gender issues, and ethnic minority issues; (4) instruction related to professional socialization, legal and ethical considerations; (5) the application of research methodology and data analysis to the field of marriage and family therapy; and (6) supervised clinical practice which consists of a minimum of 500 face-to-face contact hours with clients (conducted over a period of one calendar year). Graduates of the program are prepared to fill family therapy leadership roles in both public and private agencies, hospitals, and industry.

HOME ECONOMICS

Students earning the Master of Science degree in Home Economics may emphasize Family Economics and Management, Food and Nutrition, or Home Economics Education. Students planning further graduate study will find the program flexible enough to accommodate their special needs and interests.

The emphasis in Family Economics and Management prepares students who are interested in consumer-related positions in business and industry. Such positions may be with financial institutions, retailers, marketing companies, utility companies, manufacturers, publishers, etc. The Cooperative Extension Service also seeks persons holding a master's degree in Home Economics with this emphasis. Topics typically studied include socioeconomic problems of families and consumer economics. A minor in business administration (finance, marketing, or management), communications, journalism, counseling psychology, or a related field is suggested.

The Food and Nutrition emphasis is designed for individuals who want to specialize in the study of nutrition and the impact of food choices and diet on nutrition status. Depending on the student's background and interests, appropriate courses in biochemistry, physiology, adult education, psychology, and health and safety education supplement the major course work in nutrition. Students have the opportunity to develop their research interests in human and experimental nutrition, or in community nutrition, with faculty qualified in each of these areas. Students with appropriate prerequisites may complete the Coordinated Program in Dietetics to become eligible to write the registration examination given by the American Dietetic Association upon graduation.

Students may continue their professional development in the teaching profession by emphasizing in Home Economics Education. For those seeking certification in Occupational Home Economics, HEE 612 (6 hours) and HEE 509 are required. HEE 612 may not be used to fulfill master's degree requirements; however, it may be applied toward the Education Specialist degree. The emphasis in Home Economics Education focuses on program planning, implementation, and evaluation. Course work is provided on topics such as consumer economics, curriculum development, occupational home economics, family life education, supervision, evaluation, methods and materials, information technology, special needs students, and adult education. The program provides professional growth and development primarily for persons employed in the public schools or junior colleges and with the Cooperative Extension Service. A minor in a specialized area of home economics is advised.

SPECIALIST IN EDUCATION

The Specialist in Education degree offered by the School of Home Economics is taken after earning a master's degree or its equivalent in Home Economics and is intended primarily for those persons pursuing teaching careers in high schools and junior colleges. The Specialist's degree in Home Economics currently meets the Mississippi State Department of Education requirements for AAA certification for those who already hold AA certification. The curriculum for the Specialist's degree is purposely designed to be flexible so that candidates may choose courses of greatest need. The student must meet University requirements for admission to graduate study at the specialist's level, including a GRE score of 900.

The specialist's degree requires the completion of at least thirty-three (33) semester hours beyond the master's degree. A minimum of nine (9) hours of Home Economics Education, REF 602, and a research problem (6 semester hours) are required. The remaining fifteen (15) hours may be chosen from home economics subject matter courses. Other courses may be selected with permission of the major professor. Nine hours must be completed during one semester of full-time study in residence on the Hattiesburg Campus. HEE 612 may be applied toward the Ed.S. degree.

MASTER OF SCIENCE DEGREE PROGRAM

The School of Nursing offers majors leading to the Master of Science degree in Community Health Nursing, Nursing Service Administration, and Psychiatric Nursing. Students selecting a major in Community Health Nursing or Psychiatric Nursing are required to select a functional role in Nursing Service Administration, Nursing Education, or Clinical Specialization. Students selecting the Nursing Service Administration major are required to select the clinical area of Community Health Nursing or Psychiatric Nursing.

The purposes of the master's program in nursing are to provide advanced study in nursing practice and role development and to provide a foundation for doctoral study.

The purposes of the Community Health Nursing major are to prepare nurses to assume leadership roles in community health and to develop nursing programs designed to meet community health needs.

The Psychiatric Nursing major prepares the graduate for advanced practice with individuals, families, and groups in a variety of settings.

The Nursing Service Administration major is designed to prepare graduates for administration responsibilities in primary, secondary, and tertiary health care facilities.

Admission Requirements

In addition to meeting the University of Southern Mississippi requirements for admission to graduate study, the master's program applicant must have:

1. Graduated from a National League for Nursing accredited baccalaureate program.

2. A 3.0 Grade Point Average (GPA) in undergraduate Nursing courses.

3. Completed an introductory course in statistics.

4. Physical assessment skills (Community Health Nursing Requirement).

 A minimum composite score of 850 in the verbal and quantitative sections of the Graduate Record Examinations (GRE). The applicant must have acceptable scores in each section.

6. Registered nursing license.

Exceptions to the above criteria must be approved by the major adviser, the Director of the School of Nursing, and the Dean of the Graduate School.

Academic Progression

A student must obtain 1) a minimum grade of B in each nursing course; 2) a minimum grade of C in each non-nursing course; and 3) an overall 3.0 GPA. If the grade point average falls below 3.0, the student is placed on conditional status by the School. Failure to attain a 3.0 cumulative grade point average within the next 9 hours of study will result in denied progression in graduate nursing courses.

Students in clinical agencies must adhere to agency guidelines.

Curriculum:

Thirty-nine (39) credit hours are required to complete the program: 13 hours in the core, 16 hours in the major, 10 hours in the clinical or functional role area.

Depending upon enrollment and resources, all nursing majors may not be available at Hattiesburg and Gulf Park Campuses.

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

Beulah R. Compton, Director Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5114 (601) 266-4163

The School of Social Work offers two degrees: the B.S.W. degree, a program of preparation for beginning social work practice, offered at the undergraduate level, and the M.S.W., a graduate degree that prepares students for entry into advanced social work practice. The M.S.W. is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education.

Social workers are thoroughly trained professionals who provide services to more people in Mississippi and across the United States than any other professional group. They serve in many places where people need help with their problems in living, including schools, correctional institutions, chemical dependency agencies and hospitals. They work with families, taking a compassionate approach to families in crisis, including family therapy as well as counseling battered spouses and abused children. They offer assistance in arranging for foster care for neglected or abused children or adoption services.

Social workers in medical settings help patients and families cope with the emotional and financial burdens that often accompany illness, aging or death. They assist in arranging follow-up care after hospitalization and serve as a professional liaison between patients, their families and other health professionals. Social workers make valuable contributions to the mental health field, offering inpatient and outpatient therapy, as well as aiding families and patients in use of community resources.

Many social workers find a satisfying career in military service. They offer emotional assistance to members of the armed forces, as well as their families in coming to terms with the unsettled nature of their lives. There is a growing demand for social workers in business and industry to operate employee assistance programs dealing with stress-related problems, interpersonal relationships, chemical misuse and other difficulties that can disrupt the productivity of the employee.

MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK

First year students begin their work in the fall semester. Full-time first year students will have concurrent classroom courses and field instruction (internship) the first year. Tuesdays and Thursdays will be spent in field placement. During the fall semester of the second year, students will be in classroom courses only. During the spring semester students will be in an advanced field placement four days each week. Fridays will be spent on campus during this semester. A minimum of sixty (60) credit hours is required for graduation.

Program on Part-time Basis

The School, in keeping with admissions requirements, offers a part-time educational program designed primarily for employed practitioners in which the first two semesters of classroom instruction may be completed over an extended period of time (up to five years). First year field instruction for part-time students is arranged. The final thirty (30) hours of class and field instruction must be taken as full time students in residence.

Credit by Examination

It is possible for students who meet admission requirements and hold a B.S.W. from an accredited undergraduate social work program to receive credit for a maximum of twelve (12) hours of first year MSW courses through proving mastery of the material offered in those courses. Mastery of the material will be determined by both oral and written examinations. These examinations will be administered in the first two weeks of each semester, in time to allow students to drop and add courses without charge.

Requisites for the M.S.W. Degree

Students must have a 3.0 grade average in academic course work and a 3.0 grade average in field practicum.

All required courses must be successfully completed.

A minimum of sixty (60) hours is required for graduation in the M.S.W. program.

Admission Requirements

Applicants to the School of Social Work are selected and admitted without discrimination on the basis of sex, race, religion, color, lifestyles, or national origin.

A. Students, full-time or part-time, are admitted on the basis of the following factors: a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university; a minimum undergraduate grade point average (GPA) of 2.75 on a 4.0 scale; a minimum combined score of 850 on the Graduate Record Examinations (verbal and quantitative sections); academic background; references; a written personal statement from the applicant; and a report of a faculty member's interview with the student. All of these factors are evaluated by the Admissions Committee. It is the desire of the School to see each applicant prior to completion of the admission process. In most cases, an interview with the applicant by a faculty member is required to support the application process. The faculty member will then submit a report of the interview to the School's Admissions Committee.

B. Students who wish credit by examination must meet the following additional requirements: hold an undergraduate social work degree from a CSWE accredited program with a GPA of 3.0 in undergraduate social work courses, and pass appropriate examinations.C. Admission of an applicant with prior status of "graduate non-degree" is contingent upon a B or above in each course taken as a graduate non-degree student, and approval of the Admissions Committee. No more than nine (9) credit hours may be transferred toward the graduate degree from the "non-degree" status. Therefore, after nine (9) hours have been accrued, non-degree students must apply for and receive admission into the School of Social Work in order to receive credit for additional course hours.

The School adheres to the University policies with regard to admission of graduate students on a "conditional" basis. Students with conditional admission are not eligible to transfer credit by examination. The University regulations concerning "conditional admissions" for regular or part-time students are stated in this Bulletin under "Admissions Requirements and Procedures."

Applications for admission must be accompanied by a copy of the student's Graduate Record Examinations Score (verbal and quantitative sections) and a copy of a transcript covering at least the final two years of undergraduate study. Applicants for transfer credit must also supply course descriptions of undergraduate social work courses taken.

All admission requirements must be completed by the University admission deadline for fall semester admission. The Graduate Record Examination is given only at specified times during the year, and there is a delay of about six (6) weeks before the University receives the student's scores after the GRE is taken. Therefore, since GRE scores are required for admission, the applicant should allow sufficient time for the completion of an application. For further information, write or call:

CENTER FOR COMMUNITY HEALTH

Lynn Cook Hartwig, Director Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5122 (601) 266-5437

The Center for Community Health was created as an organizational focus for expanded activities in community health within the College of Health and Human Sciences. Initial offerings from the Center include the areas of Health Education and Health Policy and Administration within the Master of Public Health (M.P.H.) degree. The Center also offers the Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees in Health Education preparing students to work with individuals and communities as they make lifestyle decisions that affect their health. The Center serves as a base for interdisciplinary research and demonstration activities in such areas as rural health policy, community programs for the elderly, access to health care for vulnerable populations, and disease prevention and health promotion, and occupational health and safety.

Admission to the master's programs requires an acceptable score on the Graduate Record Examinations (850 combined verbal and quantitative scores), a GPA of 2.75 or higher at the baccalaureate level, and a minimum of an undergraduate minor (or its equivalent) in an appropriate* field of study. A personal interview with a member of the graduate faculty is highly recommended.

Written and oral examinations are required of all graduate students in the master's program. Requests to take the comprehensive examination must be made in writing the semester prior to administration of the examination. The request should be sent to the Director of the Center, and the following typed information is to be included:

- A. Applicant's name as it appears on official school records
- B. Social Security number C. Emphasis area
- D. Applicant's address and telephone number (during semester in which examination will be

All general Graduate School requirements outlined earlier in this Bulletin must be satisfied for students to progress successfully toward degrees. Regardless of degree level pursued, the student is responsible for following all graduate regulations. The student's major professor will assist, but the student is expected to know what is required and to take full responsibility.

MASTER OF PUBLIC HEALTH (M.P.H.)

Graduates of the recently approved M.P.H. will find career opportunities in all sectors of the health care field including health service delivery organizations, community organizations, federal, state and local health agencies, colleges and universities, voluntary health agencies, consulting firms, industry, and insurance companies. Students will usually take forty-five (45) credit hours. A minimum of thirty-six (36) hours may be approved for those with terminal degrees or considerable experience.

^{*}Specific competencies for admission are determined by each area.

The College of Liberal Arts offers the Doctor of Philosophy, the Master of Philosophy, the Specialist, the Master of Arts, and the Master of Science degrees as outlined on the previous pages.

With the approval of the major professor and the chair of the major department, the student may choose a graduate minor in a cognate field, subject to the approval of the major professor and the chair of the major department.

Various departments of the College of Liberal Arts also participate with the College of Education and Psychology in programs leading to the Master of Education degree.

For general academic requirements and regulations governing each of these degree programs, see section on Academic Requirements. For specific degree requirements, consult the appropriate department.

SCHOOL OF COMMUNICATION

Gene Wiggins, Director Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5158 (601) 266-5650

The School of Communication offers the Master of Arts, Master of Science, and the Doctor of Philosophy degrees under the joint administration of the participating areas within the Department of Journalism, the Department of Radio, Television, and Film, and the Department of Speech Communication. The Director of Graduate Studies advises all candidates regarding general regulations and requirements and serves as academic adviser until committees are formed and major professors are selected.

Master's and doctoral degree candidates select a concentration and curriculum from among the participating disciplines with the approval of the major professor and committee members. Curricula and requirements for master's candidates majoring in Communication and in Public Relations are outlined below. All graduate courses in Mass Communication; Journalism; Radio, Television, and Film; and Speech Communication are listed under Communication in the course descriptions.

Master's degree candidates in Communication select one of two primary concentrations: (1) speech communication, or (2) mass communication. A separate major is available in Public Relations. Students emphasizing mass communication or majoring in public relations are required to have prior academic training or professional experience in the mass media or public relations practice. Those not meeting the requirement can be admitted into the program but will be required to correct the deficiency without receiving graduate credit for the additional work.

The Doctor of Philosophy degree program is interdisciplinary and is structured in consultation with the student's doctoral committee to serve the student's individual needs. The program involves study of advanced theories of speech communication and mass communication research design and methodology.

Admission requirements for the School of Communication are the same as those of the

SCHOOL OF LIBRARY SCIENCE

Jeannine L. Laughlin, Director Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5146 (601) 266-4228

The School of Library Science offers a course of study leading to a Master of Library Science degree. Since the first master's degree in library science was awarded in 1965, the program has continued to grow and develop into a truly comprehensive instructional program for all students who plan to become professional librarians in public, school, academic, or special libraries. For the general University graduate student, the School offers a variety of course offerings for acquiring skill in the scholarly use of library resources as research tools. Finally, the School performs a vital role in the continuing development and expansion of library services at all levels in the State of Mississippi as well as providing continuing education for practicing librarians.

The graduate curriculum in library science provides instruction in the following areas of librarianship: reference; cataloging and classification; selection and acquisition; administration; bibliography; non-print media; history of the book, libraries, printing and publishing; library programs for children and youth; and library automation and information science.

Providing prospective librarians with professional knowledge and skills for effective library service, however, is not the only objective of the School. The faculty believes that professional education should also be concerned with fostering those attitudes and understandings which will help students develop an appreciation of the changing role of the library in society. The library profession will flourish only as students are prepared to participate intelligently in the process of relating library services to the larger social and cultural needs of contemporary society.

Accreditation

The Master of Library Science degree is accredited by the American Library Association. The School is also an institutional member of the American Library Association, Association for Library and Information Science Education, Mississippi Library Association, and the Southeastern Library Association.

Mission of the Library School

The mission of the Library School is two-fold: (1) to prepare students for professional and paraprofessional roles in librarianship and related areas, and (2) to sensitize students to the changing information needs of a free and open society and to the aims of their chosen profession.

Admission Requirements

A graduate student in Library Science must meet the general requirements for admission to the University graduate program as outlined elsewhere in the Graduate Bulletin, scoring not lower than 850 on the combined Aptitude Section of the GRE and a grade point average of 3.00 (figured on an A equals 4.00 scale) for the last two years of undergraduate study to qualify for regular admission. For conditional admission, the School of Library Science adheres to the policies of the Graduate School as stated in the Graduate Bulletin. In keeping with University practice and policy, sex, religion, race, physical disability, creed, and age play no role in the consideration of applicants for admission to the M.L.S. degree program.

In addition to the application forms which must be submitted to the Admission Office of the University, the School of Library Science requires the submission of a personal questionnaire, plus two letters of recommendation (on forms supplied). One letter of recommendation should be from a librarian. These forms may be obtained by writing to the School of Library Science, not to the Graduate School. Personal interviews with applicants will also be conducted whenever possible.

THE MASTER OF LIBRARY SCIENCE DEGREE

Candidates for the Master of Library Science (M.L.S.) degree must earn a minimum of forty-one (41) semester hours of credit with a 3.00 cumulative grade point average. Eighteen (18) of these hours must be at the 600 level of courses. A minimum of six (6) hours may be elected from the offerings of other departments within the University. A total of no more than nine (9) semester hours of transfer work and non-degree work may be applied toward the degree.

The program of study for students will be individualized, taking into consideration previous academic backgrounds, experience, and career objectives. All programs of study must be planned with the counsel of a faculty adviser and approved by the Director of the School of Library Science.

I. M.L.S. Degree Requirements

LS 501, 505, 511, 636, 651, 668 605 and 609 664 or 665 or 666 or 667 Electives (15 hours) Master's project (2 hours) If near equivalencies of any of the above required courses were taken on either the undergraduate or graduate level at an accredited institution with a grade of B or above, other electives may be substituted. Courses at the 500 level may also be waived by special examination or by the Director of the School.

All students are required to pass a media equipment competency test. This requirement may be satisfied by receiving a grade of "B" or above in LS 516 or an equivalent course.

II. Course Requirements for School Library-Media Specialist Certification at the Master's Level

Students who plan to use the master's degree in Library Science for Class AA certification should complete the following courses in addition to those listed above:

As of Sept. 1, 1981 the following professional education courses must be complete to satisfy certification requirements in the State of Mississippi: REF 601 and REF 607. (LS 668 may be taken in lieu of REF 601.)

Students seeking certification at the master's level are also advised that they may be required to complete more than 41 hours to meet all degree and certification requirements, especially if they do not hold a Class A Certificate in Library Science. Students should see their adviser or the Director of the School of Library Science for further information concerning certification requirements.

Changes in teacher education certification have recently been mandated by the Mississippi State Department of Education. Existing teacher education programs are subject to change contingent on formal University approval. Please consult your academic adviser for alterations pending in this program.

The History Department and the School of Library Science offer a dual master's degree program leading to the Master of Arts in History and the Master of Library Science degrees. The total number of hours required for both programs is 57—33 for the M.L.S. and 24 for the M.A. in History.

SCHOOL OF PUBLIC AND INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

William H. Hatcher, Director Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5108 (601 266-4310

The School of Public and International Affairs is a separately organized entity within the College of Liberal Arts and is comprised of three departments offering graduate degrees: Criminal Justice, Geography and Area Development, and Political Science.

DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Tyler H. Fletcher, Chair Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5127 (601) 266-4509

The Department of Criminal Justice offers courses leading to a Master of Arts degree, a Master of Science degree, and a graduate minor in the master's and doctoral degree programs of other departments.

MASTER'S PROGRAMS

Master of Arts Degree

The Master of Arts degree in Criminal Justice consists of a minimum of thirty-three (33) hours of criminal justice course work, or a minimum of twenty-four (24) hours of criminal justice course work with nine (9) hours of additional course work in an approved minor. Either sequence also requires six (6) hours of CJ 698, Thesis, for a total of thirty-nine (39) hours. The Master of Arts degree program is divided into the fields noted below. CJ 525 and CJ 625 are required in all fields. A student will be required normally to select a minimum of four courses from a field concentration and a minimum of one course from each of two other fields in order to gain an appreciation of the interaction of criminal justice system components. A foreign language competency is required.

Master of Science Degree

The Master of Science degree in Criminal Justice consists of a minimum of thirty-nine (39) hours of criminal justice course work, or a minimum of thirty (30) hours of criminal justice course work with nine (9) hours of additional course work in an approved minor area, plus successful completion of a written comprehensive examination. The degree is designed to provide specialization in a designated field to meet professional needs. CJ 525 and CJ 625 are required in each option.

General Requirements for Admission

(A) Applicants who have an undergraduate major in Criminal Justice and non-degree graduate students must have achieved a grade point average of 3.0 overall and in their criminal justice courses for regular admission.

(B) Applicants must have achieved a score of at least 850 points total on the quantitative and verbal portions of the Graduate Record Examinations for the Master of Science degree and 900 for the Master of Arts degree. If a student is given conditional admission, he or she must have at least 750 on the GRE. In the case of international applicants, at least 400 points of the required total must be scored in the verbal part of the GRE.

(C) In cases where considerations other than grade point averages indicate, the department may, at its discretion, grant conditional admission to undergraduate criminal justice majors and non-degree graduate students in Criminal Justice with a GPA of less than 3.0 but more than 2.75 overall and in criminal justice courses.

(D) Students with other than a criminal justice undergraduate major will be granted conditional admission if the department is satisfied that their grade point average overall and in their particular major indicates the potential to perform acceptably in the program.

(E) All admissions of students with other than a criminal justice undergraduate major or strong professional training in criminal justice will be conditional upon the completion, with a 3.0 average, of up to twelve (12) hours of undergraduate criminal justice courses consisting of CJ 330 and either CJ 341 or CJ 360, plus one other course approved by the student's adviser.

DEPARTMENT OF GEOGRAPHY AND AREA DEVELOPMENT

Jesse O. McKee, Chair Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5051 (601) 266-4729

The Department of Geography and Area Development offers the following graduate degree programs:

1. Master of Arts and Master of Science in Geography

2. Master of Science in Economic Development

The department features coursework in geography, economic development, and urban and regional planning. The degree programs in geography stress concentrations in atmospheric science, economic development, urban and regional planning, population and cultural systems, remote sensing, cartographic techniques, and geographic information systems, balanced by staff specialties in a variety of other systematic and regional areas. All programs in geography emphasize the application of technical skills and the development of a research capability in a particular concentration.

The student is held responsible for all graduate regulations. The student's major professor will help in any way possible, but the student is expected to know what is required and to take full responsibility. General academic requirements are explained fully earlier in the Bulletin; departmental requirements are listed below.

MASTER'S PROGRAMS IN GEOGRAPHY

Programs falling under both the M.A. and M.S. are designed to prepare students for further graduate study and for employment in such areas as planning, area development, business, government service, or teaching. Participation in an internship program is generally available to all departmental graduate students, but particularly to those pursuing a master's planning concentration in geography or the economic development degree. Prospective students should be prepared to spend up to two years completing all degree requirements: progress may be accelerated by taking advantage of summer sessions.

The department requires a score of 850 on the Graduate Record Examinations, and a 3.00 grade point average over the last two years of full-time undergraduate course work. Financial aid will be awarded on a competitive basis.

Curriculum Requirements

- 1. A minimum of thirty-six (36) semester hours in graduate level geography courses with at least eighteen (18) hours of work in courses at the 600-level. With the approval of the major professor, the student has an option of taking (outside the department) up to twelve (12) semester hours of cognate courses within the minimum hourly requirements. Courses prefixed with GHY, ED, or PLG may be used in any combination to satisfy the minimum required hours.
- 2. GHY 610 and 680. These courses are required of all students.
- 3. Demonstrated proficiency in cartography and statistical/quantitative methods. Proficiency is generally established (on an individual basis) by evidence of satisfactory completion of course work in these areas sometime in a student's academic career, at either the graduate or undergraduate level.
- 4. All students in the M.A. program will prepare a thesis. Students in the M.S. program have the option of preparing a thesis or a paper of a professional quality. The thesis will confer six (6) semester hours credit to be counted as part of the total minimum hourly requirement for the degree. The paper, which will normally be the end product of work begun in a seminar, will confer no credit hours toward the minimum required for the degree.
- 5. An oral examination on the student's academic program is required. Students in the M.S. and M.A. programs writing a thesis will take an oral defense of the thesis. Students in the M.S. program taking the option of preparing a paper of professional quality will have the paper reviewed by the department faculty and will present it orally before the combined faculty.

Other Specific Requirements

In addition to the above, the following requirements are specified for those students working respectively, for either the Master of Arts or the Master of Science degrees in Geography.

Master of Arts

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY

James G. Flanagan, Chair Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5074 (601) 266-4306

The Department of Sociology and Anthropology offers graduate work leading to the master's degree in anthropology and a minor in the master's and doctor's degree program of other departments.

MASTER'S PROGRAM IN ANTHROPOLOGY

The Department of Sociology and Anthropology offers programs within the College of Liberal Arts leading to the Master of Arts or Master of Science degree in Anthropology. The minimum combined GRE test score required for regular admission to the graduate program in Anthropology is 900. Also required is a minimum verbal score of 400. Requirements for these degrees are as follows:

No more than six (6) hours of field methods courses (ANT 516, 536) and no more than nine (9) hours of independent study courses (ANT 692, 792) will be applied toward the degree. Also required are proficiency in statistics; successful completion of a comprehensive examination; and submission of an approved thesis. An outside minor of nine (9) hours in an approved related field may be included toward the total hours required.

The Department of Sociology and Anthropology also offers a graduate minor in Anthropology for students in the master's and doctor's degree programs of other departments.

DEPARTMENT OF SPEECH AND HEARING SCIENCES

Stephen E. Oshrin, Chair Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5092 (601) 266-5216

The Department of Speech and Hearing Sciences offers programs leading to the Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. At the master's level, emphasis is possible in three principal areas: (1) speech-language pathology, (2) audiology, and (3) education of the deaf. Doctoral students may specialize in one of three principal areas: (1) speech-language pathology, (2) audiology, and (3) speech sciences.

New students are accepted by the Department of Speech and Hearing Sciences for the master's program in Speech-Language Pathology, Audiology, or Education of the Deaf prior to each registration period. Students must have regular admission status to register for practicum courses.

There is a Summer Only Program which requires four summers for completion. Students must have the necessary undergraduate courses to be admitted to this program. Students may enter any summer. Courses are rotated in sequence so skipping a summer causes considerable delay.

MASTER'S PROGRAM

Potential graduate students should refer to other sections of the Bulletin for information regarding admission requirements as set forth by the Graduate School. Regular admission to the master's programs is based upon the previous academic records, scores on the Graduate Record Examinations, and recommendations. Minimum requirements for regular admission are a combined score of 850 on the aptitude phase of the GRE, a grade point average of 2.75 (where A equals 4.0) for the last two years of undergraduate study, and a grade point average of at least 3.0

on undergraduate courses in Speech and Hearing Sciences. Students who do not qualify for regular admission may be admitted on conditional status if space allows. Conditional students may only take nine (9) hours during their first semester and are required to take additional coursework for graduation. Conditional students whose grade point average is less than 3.0 after the first nine (9) hours will be dropped from the program. A major in Speech and Hearing Sciences at the master's level requires a minimum of thirty-four (34) semester hours. The Master of Arts degree requires a thesis, three semester hours of clinical practicum, no less than eight three-semester hour courses, and the successful completion of a comprehensive examination. The master's comprehensive examination is the National Examination in Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology; the passing score for the 1991-92 academic year is 600. The Master of Science degree requires three semester hours of clinical practicum and no less than nine three-semester hours courses. A thesis is optional for the Master of Science degree.

Master's Degree with Emphasis in Audiology

The master's degree with an emphasis in audiology is a clinical degree designed to meet the academic and practicum requirements for the Certificate of Clinical Competency in Audiology awarded by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association. The following courses are required: SHS 528, 601, 621, 623, 625, 696, 698 or 692, 701, 722, 723, 724, 726.

Master's Degree with Emphasis in Education of the Deaf

The program leading to the master's degree with an emphasis in education of the deaf is individualized to the needs of the student. Specialization in education of the deaf may be pursued in a number of areas including preprimary, elementary (grades 1-8), secondary, secondary special subject, or a specialty area. Selection of specialization areas is governed by the candidate's background, interests, and employment objectives.

The master's degree program enables a student to qualify academically for a master's degree teaching certificate. However, some states may impose other requirements prior to an individual's obtaining compensation at the master's level. Mississippi requires a teacher to have two years of experience before being compensated at the master's degree level; thus a person holding a master's degree but with no teaching experience must be paid at the bachelor's level until two years' experience has been obtained.

Requirements differ from state to state and it is the responsibility of the student to be aware of these differences.

Master's Degree with Emphasis in Speech-Language Pathology

The master's degree with emphasis in speech-language pathology is a clinical degree designed to meet the academic and practicum requirements for the Certificate of Clinical Competence in Speech-Language Pathology awarded by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association. The following courses are to be taken by candidates for the master's degree in this emphasis area: SHS 513, 516, 518, 519, 601, 642, 694, or 695, 696, 702, 712, 716, 719.

A student in speech-language pathology must complete practicum in two different settings. Off-campus sites must be approved by the faculty adviser, and students must have a minimum grade point average of 3.0 before beginning off-campus practicum.

DOCTORAL PROGRAM

Potential doctoral students will be advised individually by the department faculty. Programs are devised in accordance with the applicant's background, interests, and professional objectives. Applicants for the Ph.D. program in Speech and Hearing Sciences are urged to become familiar with portions of the Bulletin which deal with admission, academic, and residency requirements. Regular admission requires a minimum grade point average of 3.50 (where A equals 4.0) on previous graduate courses and a test score of at least 1,000 on the aptitude phase of the GRE.

ACCREDITATION

The master's degree programs in Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology are accredited by the Educational Standard Board, and the USM Speech and Hearing Clinic is accredited by the Professional Standards Board. Both accreditations are by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association, and are recognized by the Council on Post-Secondary Accreditation and the U.S. Office of Education.

The master's degree program with emphasis in Education of the Deaf is certified by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). This certification is reciprocal among approximately 40 states.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

In addition to meeting the requirements for admission stated in this Bulletin, international students are required to submit a TOEFL score of 560 and a total score of 850 on the verbal and quantitative portions of the GRE.

The College of Science and Technology offers degrees as outlined on the previous pages. Please check each departmental section for areas of specialization.

The Departments of Biological Sciences, Geology, Mathematics, and Science Education in cooperation with the College of Education and Psychology offer programs leading to the Master of Education degree.

The Doctor of Education degree is offered in cooperation with the College of Education and Psychology by the Department of Science Education.

Environmental Science courses are so constructed as to provide a minor for a master's or doctoral degree program.

The programs of Architectural Engineering Technology, Construction Engineering Technology, Electronics Engineering Technology, Industrial Engineering Technology, and Mechanical Engineering Technology offer selected service courses at the graduate level. Course descriptions can be found elsewhere in this Bulletin.

For detailed information concerning a department's specified degree program please refer to that department in the following pages. The student's attention is also directed to another part of this Bulletin for general Graduate School requirements and regulations.

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING TECHNOLOGY

R. A. Cade, Director Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5137 (601 266-4895/4896

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN MANUFACTURING TECHNOLOGY

The School of Engineering Technology offers a program leading to the Master of Science degree in manufacturing technology. A minimum of thirty-three (33) graduate hours is required for the degree. Courses are offered in computer-aided design and manufacturing (CAD/CAM), quality assurance, computer integrated manufacturing (CIM), manufacturing resources planning, and in related areas that provide a balance between technology and management of manufacturing industries. For course details refer to Course Descriptions section under Manufacturing Technology. The program prepares students for leadership roles in high-technology manufacturing.

Admission Requirements

Prospective candidates must have at least a bachelor's degree in a discipline that can be closely identified with manufacturing. This includes most branches of engineering and engineering technology, and some physical sciences including computer science. Since manufacturing is multi-disciplinary, entrance requirements are flexible; however, applicants must have undergraduate preparation in calculus, statistics, machine shop practice, and programming skills in FORTRAN or BASIC. Those deficient in these areas may be admitted conditionally and required to complete undergraduate prerequisites.

The other requirements for admission are a score of 950 on the aptitude section of the Graduate Record Examinations (GRE) and a grade point of at least 2.75 (on a scale of 4) for undergraduate work. Candidates not meeting these requirements may be admitted conditionally.

Academic Progression

Of the thirty-three (33) credit-hours required for graduation, twenty-one (21) credit hours must be MFG 610, 630, 640, 641, 660, and 698. The other twelve (12) credit hours may be selected from a list of electives approved by the Program Coordinator. Some of the elective courses are: INT 505, 580; MET 520; MFG 620, 650, 670L, 680, 691, 692, 693, and 697.

During the second semester of study, each student is assigned a three-member committee of the graduate faculty. The committee facilitates selection of a thesis topic and works with the Program Coordinator to direct the remainder of the student's study around this thesis topic.

Satisfactory performance in the comprehensive examination, normally taken during the final semester, is required for graduation. Furthermore, a student must maintain a grade of B or better in all 600-level courses taken and a cumulative GPA of 3.0 based on all courses completed.

DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES

Billy J. Martin, Chair Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5018 (601) 266-4748

The Department of Biological Sciences offers graduate degrees with emphases in botany, environmental biology, genetics, marine biology, microbiology, molecular biology, and zoology. Regular admission to the Master's Degree Program requires a score of at least 1000 on the aptitude section (verbal plus quantitative) of the Graduate Record Examinations and a grade point average of 3.0 or higher on undergraduate work in biological and physical science courses. Regular admission to the Doctoral Program requires a score of at least 1000 on the aptitude section of the Graduate Record Examinations, and a grade point average of 3.5 or more on all previous graduate work.

INSTITUTE OF GENETICS

The Institute of Genetics participates in programs through the Department of Biological Sciences leading to the Master of Science degree or the Doctor of Philosophy degree with an emphasis in genetics. Requirements for these degrees are outlined under the Department of Biological Sciences.

DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY AND BIOCHEMISTRY

David Creed, Chair Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5043 (601) 266-4701

The requirements of the Graduate School for applicants wishing to enter either the Master of Science degree program or the Doctor of Philosophy degree program within the department are used by the department. In addition a score of 1000 or above on the verbal plus quantitative parts of the Graduate Record Examination is required for regular admission to the graduate program. Exceptions can be made to this policy for educationally disadvantaged students who otherwise have outstanding credentials. Students whose native language is not English must achieve a score of 550 or above in the TOEFL exam.

MASTER OF SCIENCE DEGREE PROGRAM

The Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry offers the Master of Science degree with specialization in analytical, inorganic, organic, physical, and/or biochemistry. The M.S. programs jointly emphasize area course work and research/thesis and require a minimum of thirty (30) hours.

Placement examinations to identify deficiencies and to indicate remedial studies to remedy these deficiencies, participation in the seminar program, and a familiarity with computer programming are required for the M.S. degrees, along with specific but flexible coursework programs. Completion of a master's comprehensive examination in the student's area of specialization and a one-semester residency period after completion of the comprehensive are required in each program.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY DEGREE PROGRAM

The Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry offers the Doctor of Philosophy degree with specialization in analytical, inorganic, organic, physical, and/or biochemistry. The Ph.D. programs emphasize excellence in research. Qualified students holding a bachelor of science are encouraged to enter directly into the doctoral program. Individuals who are adequately prepared may take the qualifying examination at the beginning of their first semester of graduate work, but in no case can it be postponed beyond the second semester of graduate work.

The Ph.D. programs require eighty-four (84) graduate hours beyond the bachelor's degree or fifty-four (54) graduate hours beyond the master's degree. Specific course requirements depend upon individual needs and are selected with the advice of the student's research director and doctoral committee.

Among other requirements are:

(1) Completion and oral defense of a Research Prospectus; (2) Completion of a Ph.D. Comprehensive Examination;

(3) Participation in the seminar program;

- (4) a. Proficiency in two foreign languages judged acceptable by the Department and the Graduate School, or
 - b. Proficiency in one foreign language and a nine (9) hour minor of courses outside the department, the hours for which do not apply towards the degree, or

c. Proficiency in one foreign language and in statistics or computer science.

(5) Completion of a substantial research project and successful oral defense of a dissertation.

DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE AND STATISTICS

James E. Miller, Chair Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5106 (601) 266-4949

The Department of Computer Science and Statistics offers the Master of Science degree in Computer Science and is a major supporter of the interdisciplinary M.S. and Ph.D. graduate programs in Scientific Computing. At the time of submission of text for this Bulletin; the final details were not available for either the thirty-six (36) hour M.S. degree in Scientific Computing, with its blend of physics, computer science and mathematics course work, or for the Ph.D. program, which extends this foundation. For further information on the Scientific Computing degrees, please contact the Dean of the College of Science and Technology. For the M.S. degree in Computer Science, a minimum of thirty-three (33) hours of graduate work is required. Of these hours at least 21 must be computer science courses (non-thesis/project) numbered 600 or above. In addition a student will complete either a thesis (6 hours) or a project (3 hours) in computer science.

The masters program is designed to provide a fundamental understanding of theoretical and applied computer science which will allow the student to begin exploring special topics and state-of-the-art subjects. It will ready a student for advanced applications, development, and research positions in industry or for doctoral level studies.

In addition to meeting the entrance requirements set forth by the Graduate School of the University of Southern Mississippi, requirements for regular admission include an undergraduate GPA of at least 2.75/4.0 and a Graduate Record Examinations Score in excess of 1000 (verbal plus quantitative). Conditional admission may be granted to students with an undergraduate GPA between 2.5 and 2.75 provided they attain a score of at least 1000 on the GRE. Conditional admission may be granted to students with a GRE score less than 1000 provided they have an undergraduate GPA of 3.50 or higher.

Students not meeting the minimum requirements for regular admission are encouraged to submit additional information which documents their potential for doing graduate work in computer science. This would include industrial work experience and training and graduate work already completed. Students may submit GRE scores no more than twice.

A student applying for admission will normally have a B.S. degree from a computer science or closely-related program. Minimum coursework required for admission includes the equivalent of CSC 101, 102, 203, 204, 205, 306, 307, 308 and any three out of courses CSC 309 through CSC 415, CSC 616, MAT 560, MAT 561 (see the USM Undergraduate and Graduate Bulletins for course descriptions) and mathematics through integral calculus, basic probability, discrete math, and linear algebra.

Conditional or regular admission to the computer science master's program will be recommended, as appropriate, by the computer science graduate admissions committee.

For students who do not come from an undergraduate program where the courses clearly equate with the USM courses, the computer science graduate admissions committee will review a student's transcript and decide what, if any, deficiencies can be met with leveling courses and/or undergraduate CSC/MATH courses.

A student will not be granted regular admission to the computer science graduate program until those deficiencies are met. See the general policies of the Graduate School for further requirements of conditional admission for students.

Credit will NOT be given toward the master's degree for any course taken to meet deficiencies, admission requirements, or for undergraduate prerequisite courses.

Before completion of two semesters of graduate work, the student must select a three-person advisory committee. The chair of this committee must be from the Department of Computer Science and Statistics (one member may be from outside the Department of Computer Science and Statistics).

The course of study consists of:

(1) Completion of prerequisites.

- (2) Completion of 33 hours of graduate course work where 15 hours are selected from the 8 course core of CSC 616, 620, 623, 624, 626, 629, 632 and 633. The remainder of classwork must come from a combination of non-selected core courses, Computer Science elective courses, Computer Science related graduate level courses from other departments (with approval of student's graduate committee) and a thesis or project.
 - (3) Satisfactory completion of a thesis (6 hours credit) or a project (3 hours credit).

(4) Satisfactory completion of a final comprehensive examination.

DEPARTMENT OF GEOLOGY

David M. Patrick, Chair Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5044 (601) 266-4526

The Department of Geology participates in programs leading to the Master of Science degree in Geology. A minimum of thirty (30) graduate hours is required, eighteen (18) of which must be in courses numbered 600 or above. For the Master of Science degree, the student must complete an original research program, submit and defend a thesis to the department; a thesis committee which supervises these activities is established when the student is formally admitted to a degree candidacy. The GRE advanced test in geology is desirable but is not a requirement for admission. No student will be admitted as a regular graduate student for the master's degree in Geology who has a score of less than 1000 on the combined total of Aptitude Section of the Graduate Record Examinations, but may be considered for either conditional or non-degree graduate status as outlined in an earlier section.

Students following programs leading to the Master of Science degree in Geology will be required to take a summer field course if they did not have such a course as undergraduates (this stipulation may be waived, upon application, on account of physical disability).

The department in cooperation with the Center for Marine Science offers an interdisciplinary emphasis area in marine geology which includes courses in biological, chemical, and physical marine science taught on the Hattiesburg campus and at SSC.

CENTER FOR MARINE SCIENCE

G. A. Knauer, Director John C. Stennis Space Center Stennis Space Center, MS 39529 (601) 688-3177

The Center for Marine Science is located at the John C. Stennis Space Center (SSC) on the Mississippi Gulf Coast near Bay St. Louis, MS. Graduate level education and research programs are offered in the four core areas of marine science (biological, geological, and physical oceanography and marine chemistry.) The Center is composed of regular faculty drawn from the Department of Marine Science and the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory and also cooperates with other departments in the College of Science and Technology and scientists affiliated with NOARL, NOAA, and other agencies at SSC to provide state-of-the-art research and educational opportunities in marine science.

The Center is primarily an interdisciplinary graduate research program. The Center also offers a selected number of undergraduate courses in the four subdiscipline areas of biological, geological and physical, oceanography and marine chemistry. Most of the Center's undergraduate courses are taught during the summer semester at the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory campus. MAR 151 (a general curriculum natural science laboratory elective) is offered on the main campus in Hattiesburg as well as at SSC.

The best preparation for students interested in pursuing graduate work in marine science would be to develop a strong working knowledge in calculus, applied mathematics, statistics, the basic sciences (biology, chemistry, geology, physics) and engineering. Some experience with computers is also highly recommended. We realize that not all students will have gained the ideal background for pursuing a M.S. or Ph.D. in marine science. Deficiencies will normally be made up during the student's first year.

MASTER'S DEGREE PROGRAM

Admission Requirements

In addition to the general admission and academic requirements for all graduate programs as set forth in this Bulletin, regular admission to the Master's program in Marine Science requires a minimum score of 1000 on the Graduate Record Examination (verbal plus quantitative), a minimum grade point average of 3.0 for the last two years of undergraduate study, three letters of recommendation and a letter of intent expressing personal academic and research goals to the Center Director. A minimum score of 550 is required on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) for applicants whose native language is other than English. For students wishing to be considered for graduate assistantships for the academic year beginning in the fall semester, application materials should be received by the Department no later than March 1.

Requirements for Graduation

A total of 34 hours of graduate level courses with a minimum GPA of 3.0 must be completed in order to fulfill the Master of Science degree requirements. All entering graduate students must complete the four core courses generally by the end of their first year in residence. A grade of B or better must be obtained in all core courses in addition to passing the department qualifying examination, in order for the student to proceed to candidacy. A graduate student can accumulate no more than two C's. Other program course requirements include six (6) hours of Thesis and at least one (1) hour of Seminar in Marine Science. The required courses account for 23 of the total 34 hours; the remaining 11 hours (courses numbered 600 and above) must be chosen by the student from a list of elective courses approved by the department. More information on degree requirements and additional course listings can be obtained by writing to the Director.

DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS

Wallace Pye, Acting Chair Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5045 (601) 266-4289

The Department of Mathematics offers programs leading to a Master of Science degree with a major in Mathematics. In addition, the Departments of Mathematics, Physics, and Computer Science support an interdisciplinary graduate program in Scientific Computing. Under this program, the Department of Mathematics offers a Master of Science degree in Mathematics with an emphasis in Computational Science; beginning Fall 1991, the Mathematics Department has approval to grant the Doctor of Philosophy degree in Scientific Computing with an emphasis in Computation Mathematics.

For the Master of Science degree with a major in Mathematics, a minimum of thirty-three (33) semester hours of graduate work is required, twenty-one (21) of which must be in courses numbered above 600. The course MAT 691, Research in Mathematics, will neither satisfy any of the 600 level course requirements nor count towards the thirty-three (33) hour minimum requirement. At least eighteen (18) hours of the courses numbered above 600 must be in mathematics. A student who is in residence for fewer than two semesters must complete a minimum of twenty-one

(21) semester hours of mathematics courses numbered above 600. Subject to the approval of the Chair of the Department of Mathematics and the student's advisory committee, an outside minor (e.g., computer science, physics, business, secondary education) consisting of nine (9) semester hours may be used as a portion of the thirty-three hour requirement.

Before completing one semester of graduate work, the student should select a three-person advisory committee from among the faculty of the Department of Mathematics. The chair of this committee, who will be the student's academic adviser, will help the student outline a tentative graduate program. All courses offered by the department are grouped into seven areas: topology; analysis; algebra and linear algebra; optimization and numerical analysis; real analysis and probability; combinatorics and graph theory; and applied analysis. In designing the degree program, the student should select a suitable balance in at least three of these seven areas. Descriptions of the courses which are included in each area may be obtained in the departmental office. The members of the advisory committee must approve all additions and deletions to the student's program, will schedule, organize, and administer the comprehensive examinations and, in consultation with the student, will determine whether a thesis will be written.

The master's thesis, the writing of which is optional with the student's advisory committee, must conform to departmental and University regulations. The student whose prospectus is approved by the advisory committee may select only two areas of specialization (other than the one in which the thesis is written). The written comprehensive examination will cover the content of all courses taken in these two areas. The oral examination will consist primarily of a defense of the thesis (See item 4 below). Four copies of the thesis are required and must be distributed as follows: two copies to the Dean of the Graduate School; one copy to the Chair of the Department of Mathematics; and one copy to the student's major professor (who will be the academic adviser).

Additional degree requirements include successful completion of:

(1) the graduate seminar during the first two semesters the student is in residence. A maximum of six (6) semester hours of credit may be earned for participation in the seminar;

(2) the first two courses of the advanced calculus sequence, neither of which may be included as part of the thirty-three (33) hour minimum requirement. It is recommended that any student who intends to pursue graduate study in mathematics include these courses in the undergraduate program. When this is not the case, they must be completed at the beginning of the graduate program. A grade of at least C must be earned in each of the two courses;

(3) MAT 543, Advanced Calculus III, during the first semester in residence or immediately following the completion of the first two courses in the advanced calculus sequence;

(4) oral and written comprehensive examinations no later than the last week of the last semester

In order to obtain regular admission to the master's program in Mathematics, a student should (1) satisfy the present undergraduate requirements for a major in Mathematics at The University of Southern Mississippi;

(2) have a grade point average of at least 3.0 on all undergraduate mathematics courses and a grade point average of at least 2.75 for the last two years of undergraduate study (A = 4.0);

(3) have a combined score of at least 1000 on the verbal and quantitative portions of the GRE General Test.

(4) have sent three (3) letters of recommendation, a current resumé, and a copy of all undergraduate transcripts to: Chair, Department of Mathematics, at the address given at the beginning of this section. This is required of all applicants for a graduate teaching assistantship.

(5) earn a score of at least 525 on the TOEFL Examination, if he or she is an international student.

Additional requirements of the Graduate School for regular admission, as well as the criteria for conditional admission, are outlined in an earlier section of this Bulletin. Students admitted on a conditional basis may be required to complete coursework in addition to the minimum 33-hour requirement. It should be emphasized that admission to the Graduate School does not imply acceptance of the student as a candidate for a graduate degree in Mathematics. For additional information on the master's program in Mathematics, the student should consult "Instructions for Establishing a Master's Degree Program in Mathematics", "The Master's Thesis: Guidelines for the Writing of the Prospectus", "Graduate School Policies for Preparing Theses and Dissertations," and "Procedures Governing the Written and Oral Examinations for the M.S. Degree in Mathematics." Copies of all these documents are available in the departmental office.

In the summer of 1983, the department developed its Mathematics Refresher and Enrichment Program (M-REP), consisting of six courses. None of these courses will count toward any mathematics degree, but they do carry academic credit. These are sometimes offered in nontraditional modes such as at night, on weekends, during late afternoon, as accelerated course (i.e., half-semester), and with varying semester hour credit. Some are scheduled in conjunction with science courses in which mathematics is used as a tool. They are designed to provide basic understanding of mathematical skills and thought for those interested in obtaining certification to teach mathematics, as well as to be a relevant refresher for those who already possess Class A certification in secondary mathematics. Individual course descriptions follow the descriptions of the 600 level mathematics courses.

DEPARTMENT OF MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY

M. Jane Hudson, Chair Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5134 (601) 266-4908

Admission and Program Requirements

The Master of Science in Medical Technology degree programs seek to provide the student with skills and knowledge for professional enhancement. Graduates of the program may be candidates for positions as laboratory managers, education coordinators, hospital or college/university medical technology faculty members, laboratory computer specialists, researchers, departmental supervisors, etc. The program is structured to provide the student with an area of emphasis.

The Department of Medical Technology offers two programs leading to the Master's degree in Medical Technology. One program is for the individual who possesses certification as a medical technologist from a recognized national certifying agency. This certification is an entrance requirement.

The second program is for the individual who does not hold certification as a medical technologist from a recognized national certifying agency. This program includes a medical technology residency that allows the individual to become eligible to take a national certification examination. Certification from a recognized national certifying agency is a mandatory exit

For both programs, in addition to meeting the general requirements of the Graduate School and University as stated in this Bulletin, the applicant must present a total score of 850 on the verbal and quantitative sections of the GRE. Regardless of previous college experience, if English is not the native language of any student, evidence of English proficiency must be provided prior to admission into the graduate program. The MTELP (Michigan Test of English Language Proficiency) requirement is "Proficiency II" and is preferred by the department. Alternatively a TOEFL of 550 may be accepted.

A minimum of thirty (30) semester hours of course work, excluding hours awarded for thesis, is required for the master's degree in Medical Technology. In addition, individuals who do not hold certification at admission must complete a 12 month residency of forty-eight (48) hours. A minimum of eighteen (18) semester hours must be in courses numbered 600 or above. The courses should interrelate and be directed toward an area of emphasis. An area of emphasis such as microbiology, chemistry, hematology, genetics, immunology, computer science, management, or education will be chosen by the student, and all course work designated and approved by the student's graduate committee during the first semester of the program. During the initial phase of study and with approval of the student's graduate committee, the student will be required to complete a special problem of his or her own design. Students are required to write a thesis under the direction of a Medical Technology department faculty member on a subject approved by the student's graduate committee. The student's graduate committee is composed of a chair and two members recommended by the department chair and appointed by the Graduate Dean. Upon completion of course work, the student must pass oral and written comprehensive examinations and successfully present an oral defense of the master's thesis.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS

Grayson H. Rayborn, Chair Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5046 (601) 266-4934

The Department of Physics offers a program leading to the Master of Science degree with a major in Physics. The curriculum is designed to provide students with knowledge of both the fundamental areas of physics as well as selected applied physics topics. Research areas from which a thesis may be chosen include Emission Spectroscopy, Digital Signal Processing, Acoustics, Viscous Fluid Flow, Turbulence/Chaos Experimental Liquid Crystal Physics, Polymer Physics, Mathematics Physics, Statistical Mechanics, Many-Body Methods in Nuclear and Condensed Matter, and General Quantum Field Theory.

In addition to the Polymer Physics option, the department also offers the Master of Science degree with an emphasis in computational science. This is a 36 semester hours interdisciplinary program offered in cooperation with the Department of Mathematics and the Department of Computer Science and Statistics. Final details of this program are not available as this Bulletin material is being submitted, nor are the details of the doctoral program in Scientific Computing, in which the same three departments cooperate. For further information on these degrees please contact the Dean of the College of Science and Technology.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the Master of Science Program is based upon a student's previous academic performance and scores on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) and the score on the TOEFL examination for international students. Prospective graduate students should have completed mathematics through differential equations, and satisfactorily completed courses in introductory physics, mechanics, electricity and magnetism, modern physics and quantum mechanics at the undergraduate level. Students with inadequate preparation may be admitted but will be required to complete make-up courses with a grade of B or better. A combined score on the GRE aptitude sections (Verbal plus Quantitative) of 1000 is required for admission to the program. DEPARTMENT OF POLYMER SCIENCE

Roger D. Hester, Chair Hattiesburg, MS 39406-0076 (601) 266-4868

The Department of Polymer Science offers programs at the master's and doctoral levels. Curricula are designed to provide both a fundamental understanding of polymer chemistry and engineering and advanced courses dealing with special topics and state-of-the-art subjects. Both the M.S. and Ph.D. degrees require extensive research in areas involving basic investigations and developments applied to current and future problems of our society and world.

MASTER'S DEGREE PROGRAM

Admission Requirements

Admission to the master's program is based upon previous academic performance and scores on the aptitude section of the Graduate Record Examinations. A minimum grade point average of 2.75 or better on the last 60 hours of undergraduate work, two letters of recommendation and GRE scores on the Verbal (V) and Quantitative (Q) are required to satisfy the following formula:

$$V + Q > 1050$$

Requirements for Graduation

Graduation is based upon:

- 1. Completion of 30 hours of graduate work including the 21 hours of PSC core courses with a GPA of 3.0 or better.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

The department offers the Ph.D. degree in Polymer Science. Minimum course requirements for the doctorate are seventy-eight (78) semester hours not including research tools and dissertation. Forty-eight (48) semester hours are required beyond a master's degree in Polymer Science or a related area. Doctoral students must take all core courses (PSC 701, 702, 703, 710, 711, 712, 720, 721, 730, 740) as well as two 800-level courses that are offered. Graduate students must register for one hour of polymer science seminar (PSC 789) each semester that they are in residence.

Admissions Requirements

The department usually admits students only to the master's program because of the diversity of entering students' backgrounds. Demonstrated excellence is required in coursework and examinations before a student is allowed to enter the doctoral program. Admission of students with previous graduate coursework or master's degrees from other institutions will be considered on an individual basis.

Qualifying Examination

This examination is taken during the first week prior to the student's first semester of graduate work. It requires a minimum proficiency in organic and physical chemistry.

Comprehensive Examination

The written comprehensive examination is given once a year at the beginning of the summer quarter. This three-part examination covers the areas of organic, physical, and practical polymer science. A student who fails any part of the examination must retake and pass that part the following year. Only one additional attempt is allowed.

Dissertation Prospectus

Within 9 months of completing the written comprehensive examination, a written dissertation prospectus which includes an annotated bibliography must be approved by the student's committee. The prospectus summarizes the student's work accomplished to date and gives an outline of research objectives for the dissertation project.

Proposition Presentation and Oral Defense

Within 18 months of completing the comprehensive examination, the student must submit an independently conceived and developed written proposal dealing with an original proposition unrelated to his or her dissertation research. This proposal is then presented orally and defended before the faculty. Oral evaluation of the student's general knowledge of polymer science is carried out concomitant with his or her defense of the proposal.

Admission Requirements for Advanced Study

Regular admission requires (1) obtaining a minimum GPA of 3.0 on the 26 hours of core courses; (2) obtaining a minimum GPA of 3.5 in at least 30 hours of graduates courses taken at USM including the core courses and research; and (3) passing all three sections of the written comprehensive examination. There is no option for conditional admission for advanced study.

Additional requirements for the Ph.D. degree dealing with residency, the research tools, the committee, the dissertation, the dissertation defense, application for candidacy and graduation are described elsewhere in this Bulletin.

DEPARTMENT OF SCIENCE EDUCATION

A student who does not meet all the above requirements may be admitted conditionally.

In addition to the general requirements and procedures pertaining to graduate degrees as outlined previously in this Bulletin, the following requirements must be fulfilled.

MASTER'S PROGRAM

1. Hold A certification.

(a)—If the student does not hold certification he or she will be expected to enroll in courses necessary to complete this deficiency

(b)—These courses will not satisfy requirements for the master's degree.

2. Completion of a minimum of thirty-four (34) semester hours of graduate work.

(a)—A minimum of twelve (12) semester hours in a specific science—biology, chemistry, earth and environmental sciences, or physics.

(b)—Nine (9) semester hours in a related science.

(c)—Six (6) semester hours in professional education area (REF 601 and REF 607). Please see requirements for AA certification.

(d)—Seven (7) semester hours (including seminar from the Department of Science Education and a maximum of three (3) semester hours of special problems).

A thesis carrying six semester hours is optional and would substitute for two courses in Science Education. The total program with thesis requires thirty-four (34) semester hours graduate credit. The thesis may involve research in a particular science or research in science education.

DOCTORAL PROGRAM

Teaching Program

- 1. Possess a master's degree and hold an AA certification in one of the sciences or the equivalency thereof.

educational needs related to the teaching of science.

During a student's first or second semester of enrollment, the department will require a written and/or oral qualifying examination. This examination is designed to assess both the student's fitness to pursue doctoral work and to assist the committee members in planning his or her doctoral program. A written and/or oral comprehensive examination must be taken at or near the completion of the candidate's course work. Upon acceptance of the dissertation by the candidate's committee and at least four weeks prior to graduation, a final oral examination in defense of the candidate's dissertation will be administered. The Department of Science Education furthermore requires that the candidate's research be acceptable for publication in journals in his or her field.

In addition to an evaluation of the student's record, tests and examinations are used for diagnostic purposes in planning programs. The Graduate Record Examinations verbal and quantitative score should be submitted with the application for advanced graduate study.

Non-Teaching Program

Emphasis in Mathematics and Computer Science

Mathematics

During a student's first or second semester of enrollment, the department will require a written and/or oral qualifying examination. This examination is designed to assess both the student's fitness to pursue doctoral work and to assist the committee members in planning his or her doctoral program. A written and/or oral comprehensive examination must be taken at or near the completion of the candidate's course work. Upon acceptance of the dissertation by the candidate's committee and at least four weeks prior to graduation, a final oral examination in defense of the candidate's dissertation will be administered. The Department of Science Education furthermore requires that the candidate's research be acceptable for publication in journals in his or her field.
